Clair at the Funfair

It was hot. Clair sat on a chair to put on a pair of red flip-flops.

Then, she brushed her short hair and put in a clip.

After that, she set off to the park. Clair went to the funfair at the park. The fair was fun.

At the park, she met Gair. They went to get a ticket together. The fair ticket was silver.

Clair and Gair had lots of fun. Clair went to the hook-a-duck. She got a duck and then a doll.

Gair had to finish at the fair, as his mum was waiting. He felt it was unfair, as Clair was still at the park. He might go back again the next day.

ear Phoneme Spotter Story

At the rear of a shed, there lived a family of earwigs. There were three dear little children that had been born at the start of the year.

The smallest, called Sid, was clearly different: he had a beard and two big ears! The mother earwig always kept the children near.

But one afternoon her fear came true! She got home and Sid was not near! So she went to find him, taking all her gear (and some glasses to help her see clearly).

When she reached a nearby bush, she could hear something. She put on her glasses and saw Sid. He was stuck. His beard was stuck on a thorn!

ear Phoneme Spotter Story

Never fear! Mummy Earwig to help Sid! She looked in her bag of gear and found some shears to cut the beard!

Sid was glad and his siblings shed a tear when he came home to the rear of the shed.

The Mixture in the Picture

Hure was ill. In fact, he kept being sick. He had a temperature and felt too ill to get up from his bed.

The doctor sent him to bed with a pill. The pill did not help Hure and he still felt ill.

He went to see the doctor and sat in his room. In the doctor's room, on his desk, was a picture.

The picture was of a mixture that was pure green.

He had to get the mixture to cure him. The doctor went by boat and got this mixture.

"You will now get a cure!"
Hure drank the mixture. He had his cure.
