

English lesson 1

Remind yourself of SPAMROD (Simile, Personification, alliteration, metaphor, repetition, onomatopoeia and description)

Write a definition of each device, with an example to illustrate your point.

Simile:

Personification:

Alliteration:

Metaphor:

Repetition:

Onomatopoeia:

Description:

English lesson 2 and 3

Using the skills from SPAMROD, create a poem about yourself. Remember to plan it first. You may need to remind yourself of the features of a poem. There is a toolkit below to remind you.

Toolkit for a poem
Verses	Rhyme	theme	emotive	repetition	short
Rhythm	Varied punctuation	simile	descriptive	alliteration	metaphor

Poem plan:

English lesson 5 and 6

Some stories have the following structure: opening, build up, problem and resolution. Use this structure to plan and write a fantasy story. Remember to include some of the features in the story toolkit below.

Toolkit for a fantasy story
Direct speech	Description	Main characters	Paragraphs	Varied sentence lengths	Varied punctuation

Story plan:

