

Intrepid House – Weekly Update

Week ending Friday 8th May 2020

Hi Intrepid,

I hope you and your families are safe and well and are able to enjoy some relaxing family time this bank holiday.

Firstly, I would like to congratulate the following students on becoming Intrepid Prefects: Emilia W., Evie S., Oscar F., Beth S., Anisha K., Charmaine M., Eleanor B., Keiran D., Tj O., Mallory B., Mia P., Ella P. and Taliah A. They have all worked incredibly hard for the role and we are proud to welcome them as Intrepid Prefects.

House Competition - we are launching a House Competition to create a House clip or slideshow of all the amazing things Intrepid students have been up to. Keep checking your emails for more information.

Did you research and find out more about VE Day this week? I have heard of lots of families holding their own 'street party' at home to celebrate and mark the occasion, just like Miss Lawes, who you can see in the photo below is preparing her bunting, or the window display from Tom R (Intrepid 2). I have also seen lots of flags and bunting when I have been out walking the dog, have you made any? It is also currently the month of Ramadan and during this time many Muslims fast between dawn and sunset as it allows them to devote themselves to their faith and be closer to Allah. Fasting during lockdown is difficult but it is a very important time for Muslims.

I have spoken to lots of you about all the wonderful work you have been doing and all the fun activities and projects you have been doing at home such as cooking, sewing, decorating, artwork, gardening; you name it, you've been doing it! I would love to see some photos of these things and it would be great to publish some of these in our newsletter and on our school Facebook page and website. Your work could be used to inspire other students - what a great way for us to help each other keep busy and happy in times like these. Remember our Intrepid motto is 'Adventurous, Loyal, Focused' so this would be a great way to show loyalty by helping inspire others. Please make sure you have permission from someone at home before emailing pictures.

Miss Jones 😊

jonesj1@mayfield.portsmouth.sch.uk

Mrs Bradshaw enjoying some muddy country walks with her daughter.

Miss Lawes preparing bunting for the 75th anniversary of VE Day at the weekend!

Lovely window display from Tom R. (I2)