

Your Future

Interview Ready

13/03/23

Evaluation - The Results

EBP South asked students and teachers to feedback on the impact of the Interview Ready Sessions which meets Gatsby Benchmarks 1, 3, 4, 5, 6 and 8 and CDI Career Development Framework Skills.

Young People

140

STUDENTS TOOK PART IN THE INTERVIEW READY SESSIONS

WHAT YOUNG PEOPLE SAID THEY LEARNT FROM THE SESSIONS

"How to present myself to the employer."

"Body language is the most important thing in an interview."

"To be ready and do more research about the company."

"Teamwork is key. Work smarter not harder."

"Communication is very important."

"To keep eye contact."

"To present myself with good body language."

"What employability skills are and why I need them."

"How to be confident in an interview session."

"Communication and working in a team to solve problems."

"I will take the 8 employability skills so when I apply for work I can be ready when I'm in my interview."

Of students said "I understand what employability skills are and why I need them."

Of students said "I am now more aware of the 8 employability skills that all employers look for."

Of students said "I have a better understanding of how to present myself at an interview or assessment centre to increase my chances of success."

Of students said "I've used my verbal and listening communication skills today."

Of students said "I have practised working in a team and understand the importance of teamwork in the workplace."

WHAT THE SCHOOL SAID

The pupils were really good at reflecting on what skills would make them employable and how to develop their own skillset ready for their interview.

Rebecca Denford - Careers Leader

The interview ready morning is a great way of preparing students for experiences they will have when applying for jobs or apprenticeships. It shows the importance of working in teams and listening to each other!

Rachael Colmer - Teacher

WHAT THE EMPLOYERS SAID

I was impressed with the engagement and enthusiasm of the students at Mayfield this morning. They learnt about employability skills and enjoyed the practical teamwork challenge. It was a good session.

Rod Edwards

EBP SOUTH

Student, school and employer feedback is valued by the EBP team. It helps us to work with our clients and improve services for them. Through our extensive partnerships and networks with business volunteers we can create opportunities for students to have a wide range of high quality encounters. We hope these opportunities inspire and open up doors for them. Evaluating our services is important to EBP South as it feeds into our: quality assurance process, EBP outcomes for young people and Matrix accreditation. Eleanor Cameron, Career and Quality Manager