

Pre-school Newsletter

This is our last week learning about Minibeasts, we will continue with our observational paintings and constructions of their bug habits.

Parents evening will be held via micro soft teams online from the 25th of April. Appointment sheets will be available from Monday the 4th of April for you to book your time slot, don't forget to RSVP to the email which will be sent out.

Learning intentions linked to class subject.

- Select tools and experiment with colour, texture, and design;
- Develop their own ideas by shaping materials and putting together components to create a habitat;
- Explore the sensory qualities of materials;
- Discuss their work, introduce new vocabulary linked to topic.

The letter sound for the week will be 'U', we look forward to seeing your children's creations as we use their work at circle time on a Thursday to promote speech sounds.
