

FEBRUARY READING NEWS

THE SECRET ELEPHANT BY ELLAN TANKIN

Our story begins many years ago, back when I was a baby elephant. Screeching monkeys dangled in their trees, roaring lions sunbathed on a dusty patch of dried grass and sniffing meerkats patrolled their enclosure.

There were no other elephants like me at the zoo. But I did have my keeper and she was my family.

We did EVERYTHING together: We had lunch together. we washed together and we even did chores together. I was a VERY helpful young elephant.

But then everything changed. People stopped visiting the zoo, and my keeper told me about a great war that was coming.

Based on a true story, this is a lovely colourful picture book about a bond between elephant and human that war cannot break..

February is the last month of Winter. It is still cold out but that is perfect to snuggle up under a blanket with a good book.

If you have found a book you love, then share it with us – give Mrs Beech a review and she may put it in the newsletter.

We love a good book and February is a special month for love as it is St Valentine's day on the 14th. This is a great time to be extra kind to everyone including yourself!

Spectacular Shipwrecks

Review by Antoni, Nile

This book is about three shipwrecks.

My favourite part was when it is thought that Captain Ernst Lindmann (captain of the Bismark) could be leading an Atlantic rustling party under the command of Admiral Gunther Lutjens.

Tom Gates Best Book Day Ever by Liz Pichon

Review by Florence, Nile

Tom Gates has a book day and he wants to be the monster in his comic. His mom made a DIY and he wore it to school and all the scales fell off.

My favourite part was when all of his clothes came off and everyone saw his cat pyjamas.

Dogtown by Katherine Applegate

Review by Olivia, Atlantic.

Dogtown is a shelter for stray dogs, misbehaving dogs, and discarded robot dogs.

Chance, a real dog, and Metal Head go on an adventure to find their forever homes.

I like Dogtown because it wasn't boring and it was fun and interesting read.

Incredible Jobs You've Probably Never Heard Of by Natalie Labarre

Review by Fatima, Southern

This book is about cool and interesting jobs that might just be right for you. If you like animals maybe you can be something like an Animal Agent. There are lots more jobs.

This book is good for people who want to have a unique job.

LET'S LOVE OUR PLANET

We live on a beautiful planet with 71% covered by oceans. We can all help to protect our world. Farmers in California have found a way to turn kelp (a type of seaweed) into packaging instead of using plastic which takes years to break down. There are over 5.25 trillion pieces of plastic in the oceans! We can all do our bit to help. These books give some ideas – make your own reusable cup or help clean up the beaches, and other ways to protect our wildlife.

Let's Clean Up and help our world together!
