You Are' Jar

Positive affirmations are a really good way to start a home learning session...or diffuse a tricky one!
There are lots of ways to make one. The easiest way is to write some on a sheet, cut up and pop in a jar or box.
If you're short on inspiration google 'positive affirmations for children' and you'll get free printables.
Children also like to contribute their ideas

Simply ask the child to pick out a note. Take some time to discuss what it means to each of you and why it's important.

These lolly sticks by @growingthroughplay → are a nice alternative

- I am loved ♡*
- I am special.*
- I CAN DO ANYTHING!*
- Today will be great.*
- I am kind.*
- I am awesome!*
