

Year 1 Summer 1: History

How have holidays at Cleethorpes changed?

In Victorian times, people would travel to the seaside to enjoy activities, such as a puppet show, walk along the promenade or to go sea bathing.

Victorians

People who lived when Queen Victoria ruled (from 1837-1901)

The Victorians believed that sea air was good for you and that sea bathing would make you healthy.

Sea bathe Swimming in the sea

Pavilion

A decorative building used as a shelter in a park or large garden

Pier and Pavilion

1955

Pier and fountains

1970s

Tourist

Someone who travels or visits a place for pleasure

Tram

A passenger vehicle powered by overhead electric cables

Charabancs

An early form of bus, used for pleasure trips

Pier

A structure built out into the water for people to walk on

Helter-skelter

A fairground amusement with a spiral slide winding around a tower

Concert hall

A large public building used for the performance of concerts

Resort

A popular place for holidays

Pier and Pavilion 1900

Pier and Pavilion 2020

Promenade

A public place for walking for pleasure