

English Plan Week beg 5.7.20 Poetry

Week beg 22.6.20	Monday You will need to story plan sheet or draw a line in your book. Read the WAGOLL – what a good one looks like.	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday
Activity outline	What is a simile? Can we write our own?	Can we write a poem using similes?	Can I describe a flower using similes?	Can I use adjectives to describe?	Free style poetry
What to do	Explain that a simile compares something to something else eg as cold as ice, as white as snow. Have a go at the online quiz – see link below. Complete the sheet Similes to complete. (can be written out on paper)	Read the example My Tree poem. Discuss. Underline the similes. Choose something natural eg tree, flower, beach. Write a poem using similes. Complete - Example poem to read and poem to write sheet.	Look at examples of flowers. Write down some words to describe them. Complete the flower poem.	See what I found? This poetry structure can be started by having a pot of adjectives. The children pick an adjective from the pot and then find an object that matches the describing word. See Thursday’s English sheet.	Find some examples of nature poems on the internet (adult to supervise for e safety). Can you write your own poem about nature? It could rhyme but it does not have to.
Possible questions	Can we write our own similes? What can we compare?	What are similes? Can you use the word as? Can you use the word like?	What are similes? How can you describe the parts of the flower? Can you use a simile?	How can you describe things effectively?	Can I write a poem?
