

The Little Red Hen

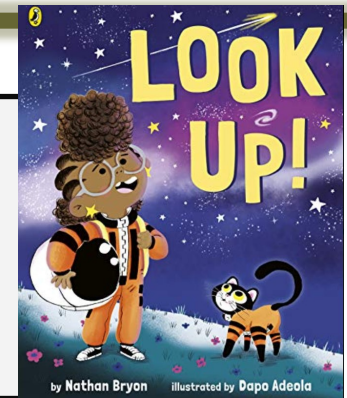

- Where does our food come from?

We will be using this text to learn where our food comes from. We will be linking this text to our Harvest festival celebrations.

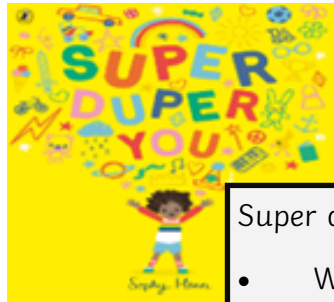

Look up

- What can we see when we look up?

We will be using this text as an insight into space.

All about me
Autumn term 1

Super duper you

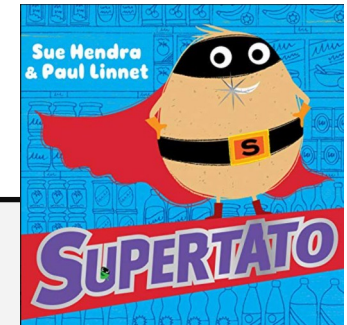

- What makes me, me?

We will discuss what make us all individual.
We will also be looking at the parts of the

Supertato

- How can we help each other?

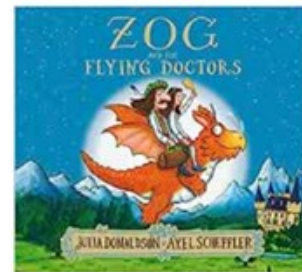

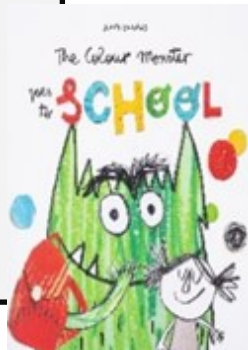

This text links to our Harvest festival celebrations and how we can help each other.

Colour Monster goes to school

- How are you feeling today?

We will be discussing our own feelings and how we make others feel.
We will be using this story to help settle us into Conker class life.

Zog and the flying doctor.

- Who are the people that help us?

This text will help us develop our understanding of the people who help us.