

Name _____

10 Minute SPA G

WC:20.4.20

Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday
1. Underline the subordinate clause.  While the teacher marked their work, the children went outside to play. 2. Add a colon in the appropriate place in the sentence.            I have three best friends: Sam, Mike and Tina. 3. Tick the ending that would make 'lonely' a noun.            loneliness <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> lonelier <input type="checkbox"/>            alone <input type="checkbox"/> loneliest <input type="checkbox"/> 4. Write a sentence using the word 'bank' as a noun.            I jumped across the river bank. 5. Write a sentence using the word 'bank' as a verb            I bank at the TSB. 6. Rewrite the sentence below so it includes an adverbial phrase.	1. Underline the subordinate clause.            The penguins enjoyed playing in the snow as the zookeepers cleaned their pens. 2. Add a colon in the appropriate place in the sentence.            I needed three key ingredients: cream cheese, carrots and orange zest. 3. Tick the ending that would make 'lonely' a noun.            loneliness <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> lonelier <input type="checkbox"/>            alone <input type="checkbox"/> loneliest <input type="checkbox"/> 4. Write a sentence using the word 'colour' as a noun.            My favourite colour is green. 5. Write a sentence using the word 'colour' as a verb.            I colour in the picture very carefully. 6. Rewrite the sentence below so it includes an adverbial phrase.  Now, I am watching a film.	1. Underline the subordinate clause.  Although I am not really hungry, the sight of cake makes me want to eat. 2. Add a colon in the appropriate place in the sentence.            A sea-horse doesn't live on land: it lives in water. 3. Tick the ending that would make 'tiredness' an adjective.            tiredest <input type="checkbox"/> tired <input checked="" type="checkbox"/>            tiredly <input type="checkbox"/> tireless <input type="checkbox"/> 4. Write a sentence using the word 'dream' as a noun.  I had a very vivid dream last night. 5. Write a sentence using the word 'dream' as a verb.  You can dream about being a professional footballer. 6. Rewrite the sentence below so it includes an adverbial phrase.  In the South of France, it is really warm	1. Underline the subordinate clause.            The man on the TV spoke calmly into the camera even though fans were screaming all around him. 2. Add a colon in the appropriate place in the sentence.            Snails are very clever animals: they make their way back home even if you move them. 3. Tick the ending that would make 'weary' an adverb.            weariest <input type="checkbox"/> weary <input type="checkbox"/>            wearily <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> weariness <input type="checkbox"/> 4. Write a sentence using the word 'drain' as a noun.  The drain was blocked so we had to call the plumber. 5. Write a sentence using the word 'drain' as a verb.  Can you drain the water out of the pan please? 6. Rewrite the sentence below so it includes an adverbial phrase.	1. Underline the subordinate clause.  Whenever I go shopping, I always take my backpack with me. 2. Add a colon in the appropriate place in the sentence.            I saw three types of bird on my walk through the countryside: a buzzard, a sparrow hawk and a crow. 3. Tick the ending that would make 'friendly' a noun.            friendlier <input type="checkbox"/> friendless <input type="checkbox"/>            friend <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> friendliest <input type="checkbox"/> 4. Write a sentence using the word 'drum' as a noun.  The little boy banged loudly on the drum. 5. Write a sentence using the word 'drum' as a verb.  I drum in a band. 6. Rewrite the sentence below so it includes an adverbial phrase.            I do my homework.

I am going to my friends' later on. 7.Re-write the sentence in the active voice: The cake was eaten by my Dad. My Dad ate the cake. 8. Has the apostrophe been used for omission or possession? The boy's dog barked loudly. possession 9. Change the sentence to the present progressive. The girl twirls. The girl is twirling. 10. What punctuation mark is needed at the end of the sentence? What enormous teeth you have Question mark Full Stop Exclamation mark	7.Re-write the sentence in the active voice: Their best striker scored the goal. 8 Has the apostrophe been used for omission or possession? The film's review was fantastic. possession 9. Change the sentence to the present progressive. The boy calculated the answer. The boy is calculating the answer. 10. What punctuation mark is needed at the end of the sentence? How did you do that Question mark Full stop Exclamation mark	7.Re-write the sentence in the active voice. The plumber fixed the boiler. 8. Has the apostrophe been used for omission or possession? The girl couldn't try any harder. omission 9. Change the sentence to the present progressive. He listened to the music. He is listening to the music. 10. What punctuation mark is needed at the end of the sentence? When do you go on holiday Question mark Full stop Exclamation mark	We had snowy weather. Last year, we had snowy weather. 7.Re-write the sentence in the active voice. My pets were looked after by my friend. My friend looked after the pets. 8. Has the apostrophe been used for omission or possession? The baby wouldn't stop crying. omission 9. Change the sentence to the present progressive. The sun set in the sky. The sun is setting in the sky. 10. What punctuation mark is needed at the end of the sentence? The bird flew through the sky Question mark Full stop Exclamation mark	I do my homework neatly. 7.Re-write the sentence in the active voice. The party was held by my friends. My friends held the party. 8. Has the apostrophe been used for omission or possession? Who's going to the cinema? omission 9. Change the sentence to the present progressive. The bird flew over the rooftops. The bird is flying over the rooftops. 10. What punctuation mark is needed at the end of the sentence? The car skidded around the corner Question mark Full stop Exclamation mark
Score: ____/10	Score: ____/10	Score: ____/10	Score: ____/10	Score: ____/10