

Can I write a simile poem?

My Tree

She sways with branches like arms
Wide and long they grow,
She sings her song in the wind.
Leaves rustling like animals rustling,
Little flakes of bark peeling like onion skin
She feels rough like sandpaper
She smells like fir cones
And in the dead of night she waits.

Can you write your own poem? Choose something to do with nature eg trees, flowers etc. Try to use some similes.
