

End of Key Stage 2 Assessments 2018

2016 was the first year that Scaled Scores replace the old national curriculum levels. To meet government expectations, pupils must achieve 100 in their Scaled Scores, as opposed to the old expected standard of level 4.

The two tables below show the percentage of children achieving the expected Scaled Score of 100+

	National Average	Milverton School	Where does the school sit nationally?
Percentage of children achieving the expected standard in Reading, Writing and Maths combined	64%	83%	In the top 10% of schools
Percentage of children achieving a high level of attainment in Reading, Writing and Maths combined	10%	17%	In the top 20% of schools

	National Average	Milverton School	Where does the school sit nationally?
Percentage of children achieving Scaled Score 100+ in Reading	75%	100%	In the top 3% of schools
Percentage of children achieving Scaled Score 100+ in Maths	76%	83%	In the top 35% of schools
Percentage of children achieving Scaled Score 100+ in Spelling, Punctuation and Grammar (SPAG)	78%	93%	In the top 11% of schools
Percentage of children achieving High Scaled Scores (110+) in Reading	28%	57%	The percentage of Milverton School pupils attaining the High Scaled Scores was, statistically, significantly above the national average.
Percentage of children achieving High Scaled Scores (110+) in Maths	24%	27%
Percentage of children achieving High Scaled Scores (110+) in SPAG	34%	43%
Percentage of children achieving the expected standard (EXS) in Writing (teacher assessment)	72%	93%

The table below shows the average progress that our children made in each subject. Expected progress is measured at 0.0. Anything above 0 is considered good and above 2 is very good.

Average progress in Reading	3.4
Average progress in Writing	2.0
Average progress in Mathematics	0.7

The table below shows the average Scaled Score in Reading, Maths and SPAG. The average Scaled Score at Milverton School is significantly higher than the national average in Reading and Maths.

	National Average	Milverton School
Average Scaled Score in Reading	105	111
Average Scaled Score in Maths	104	107
Average Scaled Score in SPAG	106	109
