

Family Bonds

Things that strengthen family bonds are:

- Eating together
- Reading together
- Talking about family and relatives
- Cooking together
- Learning together
- Exploring together
- Having a family movie night
- Playing a board game together

How many of these things are you ticking off right now? Being together is not always easy, but these things are all making memories.