Dear Parents,

I hope this message finds you well. As we progress through the academic year, I would like to express my gratitude for your ongoing support and involvement in your child's education.

In our efforts to ensure effective communication and meaningful discussions regarding your child's progress, I kindly request that all parent-teacher interactions be scheduled through arranged meetings rather than catching teachers after school hours.

Scheduled meetings provide an opportunity for both you and the teacher to dedicate focused time to discuss your child's academic performance, strengths, areas for improvement, and any concerns you may have. This approach ensures that each meeting receives the attention it deserves, allowing for more productive and beneficial conversations.

To facilitate this process, I encourage you to reach out to the school administration in order to book appointments with your child's teachers. By doing so, we can ensure that everyone's time is respected, and we can provide you with the support and attention you deserve.

Thank you for your cooperation and understanding in this matter. Your active involvement in your child's education is invaluable, and I look forward to our continued collaboration in nurturing their academic growth and success.

Warm regards,

Chris Marston
Head of School
