

Which one of the following statements best describes a 'one-off' sports event?

- ☐ an international sports event which a country only hosts once
- ☐ a large scale national event which requires new facilities
- ☐ a major sports event with international competition

The Olympic symbol of five interlocking rings is designed to represent which of the following statements?

- ☐ The five continents that take part
- ☐ The number of Olympic values
- ☐ Five different ethnic groups that take part
- ☐ Five different categories of Olympic event

Which one of the following is an example of a national governing body policy?

- ☐ (a) Issuing coaching awards
- ☐ (b) Training officials
- ☐ (c) Providing insurance for players
- ☐ (d) Rules on performance enhancing substances

Which one of the following is not a reason why sports performers might take performance enhancing drugs?

- ☐ Financial benefits from successful sports performance
- ☐ To enable them to train harder
- ☐ To develop their technical sports skills
- ☐ To boost their physical performance

Which one of the following would not be classed as an emerging sport in the UK?

- ☐ American Football
- ☐ Ultimate Frisbee
- ☐ Cricket
- ☐ Handball

Identify whether the following statements are true or false. Highlight your chosen answers .The Olympic Creed states that

- ☐ winning is more important than taking part
- ☐ it is important to have fought well in sports competition
- ☐ the struggle to achieve your best is more important than the triumph

Title: Answering 8-Mark Questions

CQ

Using examples, explain both the possible economic benefits and the possible sporting benefits for a country hosting a major sporting event such as the Olympic Games or the Rugby World Cup.

Why is this knowledge relevant?
Which jobs/careers use it?

Sports Coach - leading sports teams / own business sports club

PE teacher - teaching Pe in schools primary or secondary

Physiotherapist –gaining a sound understanding of physiology & anatomy of the body.

Sports analyst - Analysing sport

Sports reporter/broadcaster – reporting live sports

You will develop these skills whilst studying this topic:

Top earning careers that require the knowledge and skills learnt in R184 Sports Studies:

Salaries for an entry-level sports coach may be in the range of £15,000–£20,000, while a qualified PE teacher can earn £25,000 to over £40,000 depending on experience and school type. If you own your own business coaching or OAA you can earn £100k +

Theme

R184 – Contemporary Issues in Sport?

The final question in the exam is an extended-response question worth 8 marks

Number of marks	What's written	How it's written
7-8 marks	The answer shows detailed knowledge and understanding with developed points, supported with examples. There is a justified conclusion (if required)	The answer has excellent structure and shows logical reasoning throughout. The correct terminology is used
4-6 marks	The answer shows some good knowledge and understanding, with some developed points and examples	The answer has good structure and shows some logical reasoning throughout. Some appropriate terminology is used
1-3 marks	The answer shows only limited knowledge and understanding, with few points made and limited or no examples	The answer has poor structure, and points made are unbalanced. Limited or no terminology is used
0 marks	There is no relevant information	There is no relevant information

To achieve the top marks, you need to follow the principle of...

K make a point to show your knowledge

D describe and develop your point in more detail

EG give a sporting example to further support your point

Q: Discuss the reasons why PEDs are used by some professional athletes

Answer 1

Athletes might take PEDs to perform better. It can also help them to be faster or stronger. The bad thing about PEDs is that they can damage an athlete's health and it is cheating

Number of marks	What's written	How it's written
7-8 marks	The answers shows detailed knowledge and understanding with developed points, supported with examples. There is a justified conclusion (if required)	The answer has excellent structure and shows logical reasoning throughout. The correct terminology is used
4-6 marks	The answer shows some good knowledge and understanding, with some developed points and examples	The answer has good structure and shows some logical reasoning throughout. Some appropriate terminology is used
1-3 marks	The answer shows only limited knowledge and understanding, with few points made and limited or no examples	The answer has poor structure, and points made are unbalanced. Limited or no terminology is used
0 marks	There is no relevant information	There is no relevant information

Q: Discuss the reasons why PEDs are used by some professional athletes

Answer 2

Athletes take PEDs for many reasons, despite the side effects. An athlete may use PEDs to make themselves stronger and faster, which can help them perform better in races and win medals. Dwain Chambers, a British 100m sprinter, used PEDs for this reason but was caught and banned for a number of years. This had a negative impact on his sporting reputation

Number of marks	What's written	How it's written
7-8 marks	The answer shows detailed knowledge and understanding with developed points, supported with examples. There is a justified conclusion (if required)	The answer has excellent structure and shows logical reasoning throughout. The correct terminology is used
4-6 marks	The answer shows some good knowledge and understanding, with some developed points and examples	The answer has good structure and shows some logical reasoning throughout. Some appropriate terminology is used
1-3 marks	The answer shows only limited knowledge and understanding, with few points made and limited or no examples	The answer has poor structure, and points made are unbalanced. Limited or no terminology is used
0 marks	There is no relevant information	There is no relevant information

Q: Discuss the reasons why PEDs are used by some professional athletes

Answer 2

Athletes take PEDs for many reasons, despite the side effects. An athlete may use PEDs to make themselves stronger and faster, which can help them perform better in races and win medals. Dwain Chambers, a British 100m sprinter, used PEDs for this reason but was caught and banned for a number of years. This had a negative impact on his sporting reputation

Now have a go at improving answer 2 so it would get 8 marks

Top Tips:

Plan your answer first

Use the context

Structure your paragraphs

Write in full sentences

Form a conclusion

CQ

Using examples, explain both the possible economic benefits and the possible sporting benefits for a country hosting a major sporting event such as the Olympic Games or the Rugby World Cup.

K make a point to show your knowledge

D describe and develop your point in more detail

EG give a sporting example to further support your point

Number of marks	What's written	How it's written
7-8 marks	The answers shows detailed knowledge and understanding with developed points, supported with examples. There is a justified conclusion (if required)	The answer has excellent structure and shows logical reasoning throughout. The correct terminology is used
4-6 marks	The answer shows some good knowledge and understanding, with some developed points and examples	The answer has good structure and shows some logical reasoning throughout. Some appropriate terminology is used
1-3 marks	The answer shows only limited knowledge and understanding, with few points made and limited or no examples	The answer has poor structure, and points made are unbalanced. Limited or no terminology is used
0 marks	There is no relevant information	There is no relevant information

Expectations:

- To remain quiet and focused during this time to allow all learners the opportunity to apply their knowledge and skills to the Challenge Question/task
- To try one's hardest, remain resilient and aim high.
- To raise one's hand if support is required

Montgomery
Academy