

Are you interested in training to become a teacher? Or do you know someone who is?

We still have vacancies left to join our local teacher training programmes from September 2023 in all primary and secondary routes.

We would be very interested to hear from you if you are thinking of becoming a teacher or you know someone who is. We're looking for people who have (or will have) a degree, have a passion for teaching and want to inspire young people to fulfil their potential.

TEACHER TRAINING

TAKE A LOOK AT OUR LOCALLY-BASED PROGRAMMES

Our programmes do not involve travelling to a university, you can stay very close to home, and our programmes also include training and qualifications in a range of additional disciplines and practices including PSHE, trauma-informed practice and neuro-linguistic programming.

You can contact Aly Spencer on aly.spencer@blackpoolsixth.ac.uk should you require more information or to arrange a coffee with her to ask any questions you may have about the courses and future opportunities in teaching.

The SCITT also has a website www.fyldescitt.co.uk and you can find them on Twitter, Facebook and Instagram.

We can provide you with support and guidance on your application form and offer you school experience if you want a taster of what teaching could be like.

For further information on what becoming a teacher might involve more generally, you can also visit www.education.gov.uk/get-into-teaching.

We look forward to hearing from you.
