Dear Parents/Carers,

It is with deepest sadness that I write to you regarding the tragic passing of Eren Wright. Following a two-week search, it has been posted online that our former colleague, Eren, has been found though has sadly passed away. The police are still waiting for formal identification but believe it to be Eren and have informed her family.

Eren was a member of staff at Montgomery Academy until July this year covering a range of support roles in school. As well as her commitment to supporting her colleagues, she also ran several extra-curricular clubs both at lunchtimes and after school, including the Passion Project. This gave students who would not normally be confident to speak publicly a platform, to talk about their passions.

Many of the students who benefitted from the opportunities that Eren gave them to thrive may need extra support over the weekend and next week. We will consider how we can support them in school on Monday. The Montgomery family pulls together in times of need.

We will consider how we can show our respects, whilst celebrating our memories of Eren.

Our thoughts are with Eren's family and loved ones. She will be missed by many, greatly.

Kind regards,

Mr. Careless
Headteacher
