British Values

14th – 20th December

Mutual Respect and Tolerance

We can show kindness in many ways, like giving a hug or smiling at someone. When someone is far away, we can write a letter or send flowers to show we care. All acts of kindness, no matter how small they seem, will have a positive effect on those around us!

How can we show we care from afar?

This year's John Lewis Christmas advert revolves around a theme inspired by the kindness of the British public during the coronavirus pandemic. The famous shop chain said it considered not producing an advert over concerns it may not be appropriate this year, but charity partners persuaded them to go ahead. This year the video switches between live action and different styles of animation, with nine sections by eight different artists intended to celebrate the creative industries that have been hit particularly hard this year. John Lewis have said they wanted to deviate slightly from the style of previous adverts in view of the pandemic. The advert features people delivering food to an elderly couple and a man extending a Christmas cracker all the way to his lonely neighbour's house so they can maintain social distancing.

This week's useful video: www.youtube.com/watch?v=Juv2c0xgGno

In this year's John Lewis advert, the nine different scenes all link, showing that one act of kindness leads to another. In your experience, have you found this to be true? Can you explain why or why not you feel that way? • Do you think it is harder to be kind to others if you are going through a difficult time yourself? • Is there a difference to 'being kind' and 'being caring'?
