BLACKPOOL YOUTH NETWORK

Every year Blackpool Youth Council lead the local aspect of the 'Make Your Mark' campaign, a national drive to gather feedback from young people. For the last 3 years Youth Mental Health has come high on the list of concerns from young people in Blackpool. This year in response to these results a partnership formed between Blackpool Youth Council & Blackpool Fairness Commission.

Together we wanted to take action, working with local services and Blackpool Youth Network the #iAmCampaign was born – a youth lead mental health campaign aiming to raise awareness, encourage positive behaviour change and give the young people of Blackpool confidence that their voice is heard.

For maximum impact it was agreed to tie the local campaign with Children's Mental Health Week, a national week of awareness focused on the importance of looking after our emotional wellbeing from an early age.

This year's campaign focuses on being brave and trying something new & to channel that bravery we have created a timetable of free activity for young people to try. This includes football sessions, animation, cake decorating and a youth Parkrun takeover, where we'd like to see as many young people as possible come and take part.
