Head teacher's message

Dear Parents / Carers,

It was lovely to see so many parents and carers at our parents evening this week. Thank you for attending and for your continued support. EYFS have had a visitor in this week – Amanda from Phunky foods and they were trying different foods.

In Assembly today George was awarded a certificate stating how proud we are of him as a school linked to his sponsored run. He has run 26 miles in 26 days and raised over £1700 for Young Epilepsy. What an inspiration he is to all of us!

This afternoon we had a prize draw for the Easter eggs which were left over from the Easter Bingo, as well as the Teddy that was donated back to the school by Mr. Bone. The winner of the teddy and an Easter egg was WALT. The other eggs were won by Melody, Olivia and Maisie. We hope they enjoy their extra Easter treats.

We said good bye to Miss Evans in assembly today and wish her lots of luck for her future. Mrs. Bateman is also leaving us after 10 years. We wish her all the best for the future.

I hope everyone has an enjoyable, relaxing and safe Easter break.

Kind Regards

Jacqui Beavis – Headteacher
