The lawful basis on which we use this information

Legal obligation

We are required to process pupil data when undertaking our legal obligations and to comply with our statutory functions. We are either legally required to have this information or alternatively we process the information via our legal obligation as there is a high risk to our pupils.:

We follow statutory guidance on:

- Keeping Children Safe in Education 2023
- Working together to safeguard children 2023

Collecting this information

Whilst the majority of looked after children and safeguarding information we process is mandatory, some of it may be provided to us on a voluntary basis. In order to comply with the data protection legislation, we will inform you whether you are required to provide certain information to us or if you have a choice in this.

This information is obtained by the school from both the admissions forms, the relevant local authorities and safeguarding leads and relevant notes of concern.

The information will be handled internally by the safeguarding leads.

Storing this information

We hold looked after children and safeguarding data securely for the set amount of time shown in our data retention schedule.

For more information on our data retention schedule and how we keep your data safe please contact the school office – 0161 483 4521

Who we share this information with

We routinely share your information with:

- the Department for Education (DfE)
- the local authority (Stockport Metropolitan Borough Council)
- other local authorities where necessary
- other schools or education settings
- Health specialists including the school nurse, safeguarding and Looked After Children nurse

Why we share this information

We share children in need and looked after children's data with the Stockport Metropolitan Borough Council and other placing authorities. This is for the purpose of providing each child access to the correct services and support, for example, Children's Social Care, Special Educational Needs support services and School Health. This information is shared in line with our statutory duties.

We do not share information about our children in need or looked after children with anyone without consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.

Department for Education (DfE)

We share children in need and looked after children data with the Department on a statutory basis, under Section 83 of 1989 Children's Act, Section 7 of the Children and Young Person's Act 2008 and also under section 3 of The Education (Information About Individual Pupils) (England) Regulations 2013.

This data sharing helps to develop national policies, manage local authority performance, administer and allocate funding and identify and encourage good practice.

All data is transferred securely and held by DfE under a combination of software and hardware controls which meet the current government security policy framework.

For more information, please see 'How Government uses your data' section.

The National Pupil Database (NPD)

The NPD is owned and managed by the Department for Education and contains information about pupils in schools in England. It provides invaluable evidence on educational performance to inform independent research, as well as studies commissioned by the Department. It is held in electronic format for statistical purposes. This information is securely collected from a range of sources including schools, local authorities and awarding bodies.

We are required by law, to provide information about our pupils to the DfE as part of statutory data collections such as the school census and early years' census. Some of this information is then stored in the NPD. The law that allows this is the Education (Information About Individual Pupils) (England) Regulations 2013.

To find out more about the NPD, go to <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/national-pupil-database-user-guide-and-supporting-information>.

The department may share information about our pupils from the NPD with third parties who promote the education or well-being of children in England by:

- conducting research or analysis
- producing statistics
- providing information, advice or guidance

The Department has robust processes in place to ensure the confidentiality of our data is maintained and there are stringent controls in place regarding access and use of the data. Decisions on whether DfE releases data to third parties are subject to a strict approval process and based on a detailed assessment of:

- who is requesting the data
- the purpose for which it is required
- the level and sensitivity of data requested: and
- the arrangements in place to store and handle the data

To be granted access to pupil information, organisations must comply with strict terms and conditions covering the confidentiality and handling of the data, security arrangements and retention and use of the data.

For more information about the department's data sharing process, please visit: <https://www.gov.uk/data-protection-how-we-collect-and-share-research-data>
