

Reddit

Founded in 2005, Reddit is a social sharing website, on which users can engage in discussions on topic dedicated forums known as 'subreddits'. Reddit claims 'There's a community for whatever you're interested in'.

Stay Safe on Reddit by following the instructions below:

Report a Comment

On iOS or Android apps

- Report a post or comment by tapping the 3 dots (...) menu icon, then select 'Report'.

On Desktop

- Report a post or comment by clicking on the report button underneath the post.

Report a Chat Message

If it's the first time you've been contacted by this user, you will be asked to either accept or ignore the chat request.

On iOS or Android apps

- Tap the 'More Options' link under 'Accept or Ignore', then select 'Report'.
- If you've already accepted this user's chat request, tap and hold the message you'd like to report, then select 'Report Message'.

On Desktop

- Click on the chat request or message to open the full chat.
- Hover over the message, then click on the flag icon.

Block or Report a User

- Click on the user's name and go to their profile.
- Tap the three dots menu icon (or 'More Options', if on Desktop).
- Select 'Block User' or 'Report User'.

If you are concerned for the user's wellbeing, you can select get them help and support. Reddit have partnered with 'Crisis Text Line' and will reach out to the user.

Reddit suggests that you report posts, comments or chats by this specific user, which will alert their moderation team that the user is posting inappropriate content.

The screenshot shows a user profile for 'Reddit User' (u/Reddit User · 2m). It includes a 'Create Your Own Avatar' button, 'Karma' (71) and 'Cake day' (January 17, 2018) information, and buttons for 'Follow' and 'Chat'. Below these are options for 'Send Message', 'Block User', 'Get Them Help and Support', 'Report User', and 'Add to Custom Feed'. A 'Fewer Options' link is also visible.