

Principal's Award		Ellina S in Year 3. I had the pleasure of looking at Elina's books this week. They are absolutely stunning! She takes exceptional pride in her presentation. Alongside this, she is an example to all Moorside students in the way she conducts herself both in and out of the classroom. Well done Ellina, we are very proud to have you at Moorside!

Pupil of the Week
Nursery	Luca G	Luca has been a superstar this week! He has successfully transitioned into full time Nursery and has been listening carefully on the carpet. We are really proud of you Luca!
RM	Hadley M	Hadley has worked hard this week and has been a helpful hand around the classroom. He has been thinking hard about his learning and shared some thoughtful ideas on the carpet. Keep up the great work Hadley!

RC	Luna B	Luna has a really positive and cheery attitude to school life. She has been keen to learn and is trying particularly hard with her reading at home. I have been really impressed with the great start she has made! Keep up the great effort Luna!
1F	Rickson L	Rickson has been working incredibly hard this week. He has been trying to work independently and is making sure all his work is completed to a good standard. I am proud of Rickson and I am sure he is proud of himself. Keep up the great work!
1B	Oliver H	Oliver is a fantastic role model in 1B. He is always listening, following instructions, and takes pride in his work. He contributes to all lessons, and has been sharing his knowledge of London this week. Keep being brilliant Oliver!
2T	Iris N	Iris is an absolute superstar. She puts her best into everything that she does and is always doing the right thing. She is a role model to others, keep up the fantastic work Iris!
2PR	Tyga-Lily	Tyga-Lily is a role model pupil in Year 2. Her behaviour is excellent, she listens well and is so resilient. She takes on board any feedback that her teachers give and is always striving to improve. What a fab start to the year!
3R	Funso	Funso has been working hard in his writing and responds to feedback to uplevel his work. He reads every night and this effort is really paying off in his writing. Well done Funso!

3F	Boe I	Boe has settled into her new school and new class well. She is always listening and working hard. She is already modelling the Moorside values and expectations. We are very happy she has joined 3F! Well done Boe.
Reader of the week: Ire Jimoh – We started reading plus in Y3 this week and not only has he worked his socks off in class, but also gone home and worked on his reading plus more, and still found time to read his reading book! Keep up the hard work Ire!
4R	Aarav	Aarav has been working super hard and putting in solid effort this week in all lessons. Aarav is noticeably always the first child lined up sensibly and quietly when walking in and out of school – setting the perfect example to the rest of the students. Aarav has been a fantastic reader at home and brings his reading record daily to show off his reading abilities – well done Aarav, keep it up!
4A	Nela B	Nela has worked incredibly hard this week. She is pushing herself in all of her work and produced an excellent piece of descriptive writing in English. She collaborates well with the other children as she is such a kind, patient and understanding pupil. Well done, Nela – keep up the hard work!
Reader of the week: Jack H 4R – Jack is incredible when it comes to reading at home. He never fails to bring in his reading record and reads a book every single night! He blows me away each morning when he tells me about the books that he has been reading – keep it up Jack, you’re doing great!
5T	Lucas C	Lucas has been a star and has settled into year 5 really well. He’s been coming into school with a big smile every day and has done some really great work both collaboratively and independently. Well done Lucas!

5C	Harley B	For having an outstanding attitude towards his learning, regularly challenging himself in maths and listening to advice to improve his writing. Keep it up!
Reader of the week: Oscar B for working incredibly hard in guided reading but for also going above and beyond and reading every night at home. Keep up the fantastic commitment to your reading and learning Oscar!
6C	Ruby C	Ruby is trying really hard to be the best version of herself. She is showing great understanding of herself and others and is really taking great pride in herself. When you have to work really hard at something it makes it even more valuable when you achieve it. Keep up the hard work Ruby!
6I/P	Leah B	For an incredible start to Year 6! Leah has blown us away with her Maths knowledge and she has regularly been using a thesaurus to enhance her writing and up her game. She is constantly looking to improve and should be immensely proud of her achievements so far. Well done Leah – Keep up the fantastic learning!
Reader of the week: Selein has done some fantastic reading and her book reviews have encouraged other with their reading too!
