

Principal's Award		Freya D is Year 6. Sometimes, you just have a brilliant example of what a student should be and that is Freya. She has great growth mindset, is kind and caring and very funny! She epitomises the values of Moorside and is a brilliant role model to all but especially Year 6 pupils on what an outstanding Year 6 pupil looks like at Moorside.

Pupil of the Week
Nursery	Aria P-S	Aria is a shiny star! She is always displaying amazing behaviour, tries really hard with everything we're doing and is a fantastic big sister. We're really proud of you Aria- keep up the amazing work.
RM	Tobias W	Toby brings a great deal of enthusiasm to his learning and always listens carefully. I am proud of the thoughtful ideas he shares with others and I admire how he always tries his best. Keep up the great work Toby!

RC	Harper L	Harper is beginning to take great pride in her work in the classroom. She completes all activities with a smile and always tries her best. This has been particularly noticeable in her learning to write her own name. Well done Harper – keep up the great work!
1F	Bobby E	Bobby has been working incredibly hard this week. He has shown resilience and is learning that it is okay to make mistakes as we learn from them. Bobby has put in maximum effort with his learning and we are all very proud! Well done Bobby, keep it up!
1B	Abel B	Abel is continuing to work hard in class and has been ensuring his writing always makes sense and it is correctly punctuated. Keep putting in maximum effort Abel, your hard work has not gone unnoticed!
2T	Leon W	Leon has had a brilliant week. He has made sure he is working hard in every lesson and making the right choices both in class and on the playground. He has blown us all away with his writing and has been using neat joined up handwriting too. Keep up the great work Leon!
2PR	Thomas P	Thomas has been working so hard this week. He especially impressed us when he had to edit and improve his writing and he showed great determination and resilience. He has a super attitude to learning in all subjects and always strives to improve. Keep it up!
3S	Jacob C	Jacob has been working his socks off this week and really trying his best to include lots of ideas in his writing. His attitude to learning is always improving and he is a good friend to others. Keep it up Jacob!

3F	Daisy L	Daisy has been working hard recently. Staying focused and not letting others get in the way of her learning. She has been showing off her beautiful singing voice in our Christmas son rehearsals as well! Well done Daisy.
Reader of the week: Harry S – Harry reads regularly and always brings in his reading record to show the reading he has done at home, even when he has a chapter book and doesn't need to change it. Super job Harry!
4R	Oscar S	Oscar has been absolutely shining recently. Not only has he stood out at the Manchester United tournament, but he has been pushing his learning even further by tackling challenges remarkably. I can always rely on Oscar to do the right thing. Oscar is a student that should be admired for his kindness and friendship – keep it up, Oscar!
4A	Grace W	Grace has been shining in Year 4 all term. She has a mature approach to her learning and always pushes herself to produce work of the highest possible standard. Her learning behaviours are also fantastic, and she brings out the best qualities in whoever she works with. Keep up the amazing work, Grace. You are a star!
Reader of the week: Ronnie R. Ronnie has made excellent progress on Reading Plus this year and this is apparent in his writing which improves with every piece of work. Keep it up, Ronnie!
5T	Michal J	Michal is such a wonderful example of a Moorside pupil he could be chosen every week. Socially, he is kind, understanding and a wonderful friend. Academically, he has a wonderful attitude to learning and a fantastic growth mindset. Well done Michal!

5C	Jimmy L	For making a conscious effort to improve his handwriting and general presentation. Jimmy has been really listening to advice and making sure that presentation is at the forefront of his mind every lesson. This has meant that the work he has produced this week has been of a higher standard and has reflected the bright boy that his is! Keep it up Jimmy!
Reader of the week: Bobby G (5C) for trying incredibly hard in all of his guided reading sessions and for using the new vocabulary he had learned in other lessons throughout the week.
6C	Kias E	For aspiring to be the best version of himself and making the best choices even when he sometimes finds it tricky. It takes a different sort of strength and this is what Kias is letting shine through at the moment. Keep it up Kias.
6I/P	Riley E	For excellent effort and trying his best to get more involved in class discussions. We were really impressed with his recent test scores and it has been great to see him gaining more confidence and giving 100%. Keep up the great work Riley!
Reader of the week: Amelia B Amelia is a keen reader and has enjoyed sharing her thoughts during our daily spot checks. She is starting to improve her confidence and share her love for reading with others.
