Pupil of the Week

Nursery	Isabelle W	Isabelle has really impressed us this week with her attitude to learning. She's coming in with a smile on her face and is working hard to solve her own problems before getting an adult involved. Keep it up Isabelle!
RM	Jensen H	Jensen has been more proactive in completing classroom challenges. He is thinking carefully about his letter formation and working hard to make his writing his best. Keep up the great work!
RC	Dolly T	Dolly is really applying herself at the moment and is making some progress as a result of this. She is trying particularly hard in phonics, to sit her letters more carefully on the line, and to Fred talk simple words. We are really proud of your effort recently Dolly – please keep it up!
1F	Sean M	Sean has had a lovely week. He practiced and played the didgeridoo beautifully in front of the class. Sean has also written a diary entry in the POV of an Aboriginal Australian with great pride. Keep sparkling Sean!
1S	Oliver G	Oliver is a wonderful member of 1S and a kind friend to all. Oliver has been taking pride in his handwriting and focusing on his presentation. Keep up the hard work, Oliver!
2T	Amelia K	Amelia is a fantastic member of 2T. She comes in ready to learn every day and puts her best into all that she does. She is kind, thoughtful and caring towards everyone around her, keep shining Amelia!

2R	Jayden L	Jayden is a positive and dedicated member of 2R. He has worked particularly hard the past few weeks to improve his handwriting, and this is now showing across his work. His Christopher Columbus biography looks and sounds fantastic!
3S	Thomas P	Thomas has been working hard this week to listen and complete all his work. He has some fantastic ideas for his Stone Age story and I'm looking forward to seeing his writing. Keep it up Thomas!
3F	Bailey H	Bailey has a fantastic attitude to learning and always challenges himself. He is always ready to learn and sets a fantastic example in our class. Keep it up Bailey!
Reader of the week: Jayden H Jayden has been making an effort to read every day and I can really see it starting to pay off. Well done Jayden!
4R	Funso O	Funso's commitment to his behaviour and attitude to learning in the last few weeks has been impeccable. Funso has been making the best choices in order to help his learning improve and he is a fantastic young citizen!
4A	Daisy L	Daisy has a fantastic attitude towards her learning. She listens well in class; puts the maximum effort into all of her work; and is an excellent friend and role model to the other children. Keep on shining, Daisy!

Reader of the week:

Yo Yo C. Yo Yo has made excellent progress in reading since joining Moorside. She ensures that her reading record is always brought in on time and her confidence keeps on growing. Well done!

5P	Olaf M	Olaf has really impressed me recently with his kind attitude towards others. Olaf greets everybody around him with a smile and is a pleasure to be around as he has a positive attitude to learning and follows the Year 5 learning expectations. Olaf has also tried incredibly hard this week in Maths when working on long multiplication. Great Work!
5C	Imogen O	Imogen is a ray of sunshine around school. She is always happy and polite and a number of staff have commented this week on her kind and caring attitude. Imogen will often say good morning and ask staff and children how they are when walking around school. Keep leading by example Imogen! Your caring and positive attitude is infectious.

Reader of the week: Ellie R

Ellie has worked incredibly hard with her reading recently and has taken a real interest in her class read "The Nowhere Imporium". I am so impressed by her commitment to finishing this long chapter book.

6C	Rubie C	Rubie is a delightful member of our class. She is polite, friendly and collaborates well with others. Rubie also really applies herself to her learning and is producing some wonderful writing in particular. Well done Rubie.
6P	Mia-Leigh S	Mia-Leigh has been putting 100% into her learning. She is thinking about how she can improve her work and challenges herself both in and outside the classroom representing our school in The athletics competition this week. She is a helpful member of the class and works collaborate with others.

Reader of the Week: Harley B for keeping up with his reading and sharing it by bringing in his reading record.
