Principal's Award	Lola in Year 5. She has been to me several times this week to show off her exceptional work. She is really take great pride in what she produces and alongside this could talk knowledgeably about her learning.	Home learners – this term you (and your grown ups) have put a huge amount of effort to ensuring that you continue to work hard at home. You are all doing amazingly well and I am very, very proud of you.

Pupil of the Week
	In school	At home
Nursery	Belle- Belle has settled into Nursery incredibly well. She's made lots of friends and is always willing to share her ideas on the carpet! Keep it up Belle.	Ronan- I can see Ronan has been doing some excellent home learning and I'm really proud of him.
RM	Bobby E. - Bobby has had super focus this week! He has listened carefully in our class discussions and began to think about his thinking. Very impressive Bobby – keep stretching your brain!	Freddie - Freddie always completes his work to a high standard. He has put a great deal of effort into his handwriting and presentation which is fantastic. His maths has been impressive too. Keep up the great work Freddie!
RC	Flavius – Flavius has impressed us all with his focus this week. He has listened carefully and patiently on the carpet. He has also persisted with the challenge of representing numbers to five. Well done Flavius!	Oscar – Oscar has shared his work with us this week, which has been great to see. He has produced a fantastic piece of written work and carefully worked on representing larger numbers. Well done Oscar – keep it up!

1F	James – James has been working very hard this term, and I am super impressed! His writing has been amazing, and James makes sure to use new vocabulary in his work to make his sentences more interesting. Keep up the super work James!	Xander - Xander has been working incredibly hard this half term. He has completed all his work to a high standard which has impressed all of us in Year 1! The geography work that he has been producing this week has been tremendous! Keep up the fantastic work Xander!
1B	Rose – Rose has been working extremely hard this term, and she has blown my socks off with some of the work that she has produced! Her writing is beautiful, her reading is exceptional, and she is demonstrating a deep understanding in maths! Keep it up Rose.	Isla – Isla has been exceptional when working from home this term. She has shown great dedication every single day. Her standard of work has been the same as when in school, proving that she is continuing to always do her best!
2T	Ollie- Ollie has worked particularly hard with his maths this week. He continually blows me away with his reasoning skills. Keep up the brilliant work Ollie!	Logan B- Logan completes every single piece of work to the highest standard, whether at home or in school. I have been so impressed with the quality of Logan’s work this half term while he has been at home. Logan has a fantastic attitude to learning and that has shone through even more in the current circumstances. I am so proud of you Logan!
2R	Aysa-Aysa has been working really well in class this week. She always tries her best by taking part in the lesson and her handwriting is really improving. Keep it up Aysa!	Funso has been a star this half term! He has completed all the home learning set and has always acted on advice when correcting work. Well done, Funso.
3R		Millie – Millie has been working so hard this year, and this has not stopped while she’s been working at home. She does every single piece of work to such a high standard, no matter the task, and is always ready to respond to feedback. Maks – Maks has impressed me with his home learning this half term, and has kept up with the high expectations set for him. He completes every task he is set and it’s been lovely to see Maks’ creative side too in our topic work.

3F	Annabelle – She has been working hard to improve her writing this week as we have been writing our own hero/villain stories and she has put lots of effort into checking spellings and rewriting sentences to make them the best they can be. She should be very proud of her writing!	Ralphie – Ralphie has been working extremely hard at home. He puts lots of effort in to every task, making it as good as he can every time. He doesn't rush it just to get it done. He has been doing extra reading as well which I am very pleased about because this will help him understand his learning even more. So proud of you Ralphie!
4B	Thomas – Thomas has tried hard with writing his story this week. He has contributed well to the class and has come up with some good ideas for innovating the story. Not only that he is a lovely well-mannered boy who is always making the right choices. Well done Thomas	Millie – Millie has really impressed me this week with her work that she has submitted. Her story was fantastic using similes and punctuation correctly and I loved her ideas. Millie has been trying so hard in maths too. Well done Milly, keep up the good work.
4A	Millie-Rae. Millie has been pushing herself in all subjects recently. She is an enthusiastic, hard-working girl and she has been making excellent progress in Maths this term. Keep up the hard work, Millie!	Harley has been working incredibly hard and maintaining the high standards that he sets himself in the classroom. The quality of his Maths has always been exceptional but recently his writing has gone to another level with his imagination and ideas shing through. Well done, Harley.
5T	Lola. Lola has kept her fantastic, positive personality shining throughout these challenging times at school. She works hard every day and I'm particularly proud of how fantastic her writing is in English. She has a great flair for writing! She also is self-identifying areas she needs to improve on and putting in the work to do so. Well done Lola, keep shining!	Amelia. Amelia has been working consistently hard throughout lockdown school and completes all of her tasks to the best of her ability. She responds to any comments or questions I give her and I'm so proud of her for staying motivated. I'm very proud!

5W	Sarah. Sarah has been working fantastically well over the last two weeks. She has completed her learning on coordinates and angles in Maths independently and has been helping and collaborating with others too. It has been fantastic to have her back in school!	Leah D Leah has been engaging brilliantly with her home learning, producing some high-quality work, such as her fact file on Queen Victoria. She is taking great pride in all her work just as she does in school. Great work Leah!
6C	Katie Katie has applied herself well to her learning and is striving to be more independent. She has worked hard in her writing including the editing and improving of her own work.	Poppy Mae Poppy has really impressed us with the way she has kept up with her work from home. She responds to feedback and sends us lots of pictures of all the activities she has been doing. Well done Poppy!
6I/B	Ben M For a fantastic piece of writing in English. Ben has worked really hard this week to make his letter pull on the readers heart strings, by his use of emotive language and the events he includes. Keep it up Ben.	Ben C and Cassidy For true commitment to home learning, working hard at home and a positive growth mindset even though we are in a difficult situation. Keep it up.
