Pupil of the Week
Nursery	William C	William is an excellent role model. He is always trying his hardest, listening carefully and being an all round super star. Keep up the good work William

RM	Skylar H	Skylar has been working hard on developing her independence in the classroom. She is a 'busy bee' and completes all the classroom challenges with enthusiasm. I am particularly proud of her effort and attention to detail in phonics. Keep up the great work Skylar!
RC	Caleb C	Caleb is a very pleasant young man who comes into school smiling each day and tries hard in the tasks he is asked to complete. More importantly than this though, he has beautiful manners and is always willing to step in and help the people around him. Be proud of your kind heart Caleb – we certainly are!
1F	Ronan K	Ronan has had an excellent week! He has been working incredibly hard with his phonics and writing and I am so pleased with how much progress he has made. Keep up the fantastic work Ronan!
1S	Paisley	This week, especially in Phonics, Paisley has been extremely focused. The whole week, Paisley has been listening carefully and taking pride in her learning. Well done, Paisley, keep it up!
2T	Bobby E	Bobby has had a fantastic week and has blown me away with his writing. He has been working extremely hard on his writing both at home and at school and all his efforts are really paying off. Keep up the amazing work Bobby!
2R	Oliver H	Oliver is a Moorside superstar! He consistently chooses to do the right thing at all times and is a role model for all. He works hard in every lesson and continually challenges himself. Well done, Oliver!

3S	Jessica B	Jessica works really hard in class and has been trying especially hard to include lots of interesting vocabulary in her diary entry this week. Well done Jessica, keep up the hard work!
3F	Harry B	Harry has been making really good choices recently. He has worked hard in class, played sensibly outside and he is beginning to model the school and class expectations consistently. He is becoming a role model for others. Well done Harry.
Reader of the week: Iris N 3F – Iris is continuing to read regularly at home and in class. She is beginning to use some of the unusual and exciting vocabulary she comes across in the books, in her own writing.
4R	Amelia W	Amelia has produced some amazing pieces of work this week, not just in Maths and English but her wider curriculum subjects too. Amelia demonstrates a great interest in her learning which shines in her work.
4A	Isabelle B	Isabelle is a fantastic member of 4A. She has an enthusiastic approach to her learning; consistently produces high quality work; and is an excellent friend to many children in Year 4. Keep it up, Isabelle! You are a star!
Reader of the week: Otilia T. Otilia has made a massive effort to improve her reading skills, this year. She consistently hands in her reading record and is a frequent and enthusiastic user of Reading Plus. Well done!

5P	Charlie B	Charlie has tried incredibly hard with all of his work and has been an excellent example of what a Moorside pupil should be. Great work Charlie
5C	Harriet H	Harriet is a quiet member of Year 5 but can always be relied upon to do the right thing. She has made excellent progress in her English work in recent weeks she is always hardworking and listens well. Keep it up Harriet.
Reader of the week:
6C	Oliver E	Oliver is such a superstar I could give him this every week! He shows all our Moorside values alongside respect and resilience. He is an absolute pleasure to have in our school and a true role model to all.
6P	Michal Ji	Michal represents all our school values and is a role model to other children. He is a quiet member of the class who always works hard and puts 100% into all his learning. He is respectful to others, a good friend and aspires to be the best version of himself.
Reader of the Week: Lilly P. Lilly has a love for reading! She reads regularly at home and consistently brings her reading diary in to school.
