

Principal's Award		Rakim , Mika Jai , Heidi , Abel You have caught my eye this week because your teachers tell me that you read every day without fail and that you have a real love for reading. You love to share the books you are reading with your teachers and the class. You are a brilliant role model for how important reading is. Keep reading and let me know which are your favorite books as I love reading too!

Pupil of the Week
Nursery	Ronan	We have seen such a change in Ronan's behaviour and attitude in the last two weeks. He is now a role model to all his friends. Ronan is an excellent listener and now knows all his numbers to 5 - what a super star! We are really proud of you Ronan- Keep it up.

RM	Billy	Billy has been shining in phonics and our carpet time! He is thinking carefully about using a stretchy sentence to share his information. His effort in phonics has been consistently high and he is beginning to use his 'Fred fingers' independently. Well done Billy, we can tell you have been listening to our advice carefully. Keep up the great effort!
RC	Arthur	Arthur shows a real enthusiasm for new learning. He loves to share his ideas with those around him, and is always keen to join in. As well as this, his behaviour is improving and this is having a positive impact on his learning! Keep it up Arthur!
1F	Isabelle	Isabelle has been working really hard this week. She usually finds it quite difficult to ask for help when she needs it, but this week she has been trying her best to ask for help. Isabelle has been producing some amazing work and is always eager to learn! Keep up the fantastic work!
1B	Tyga-Lily	Tyga-Lily is always doing the right thing. She has been shining this week for being so well mannered, trying hard in all of her lessons and being an all round superstar. What a fantastic role model for other year 1 pupils.
2T	Isabelle	Isabelle has been working so hard this week, she makes sure everything she does is her best and she ensures all her work is presented beautifully. She is always ready to share her ideas and to help other people. Well done Isabelle, keep up your fantastic work!
2R	Joshua	Joshua has had an amazing week! He has worked hard in all his lessons and produced some excellent work. His behaviour has been exceptional in the classroom and on the playground. Well done!

3R	Emily	Emily is a pleasure to teach and always brightens my morning with her big smile. Emily is always ready to help others and is a great friend. She's tried really hard in English this week and is making great progress. Keep it up!
3F	Imogen	Imogen has been trying really hard this week to focus on her work and show everyone what she is capable of. She has impressed us with her improved concentration on tasks and we are very proud of her but more importantly, she is proud of herself. Well done Imogen.
4B	Isabella	Isabella is a lovely pupil, who always comes into school ready to learn. She has beautiful books, a kind nature and a lovely sense of humour. She is always willing to help others including me!
4A	Elysia	Elysia has made an excellent start to the half term. Her effort in all lessons is exceptional and she is really pushing herself in Maths. Elysia also has wonderful manners and is a role model to the other children in the class through how she conducts herself around the school. Well done Elysia!
5T	Kirsty	For being focused in class, trying her best and showing a great improvement in her confidence and resilience. Well done Kirsty!
5W	Sarah	Sarah has made some fantastic progress this year so far and has been working really hard in all her learning. She is independently choosing which resources she needs and presents all her work carefully. Keep up the good work Sarah!

6C	Max	Max has a fantastic attitude to life! He is confident, considerate and shows great maturity in the way he approaches things socially and academically. With his inspirational mindset he is a great role to others.
6I/B	Ethan	Ethan has made fantastic progress this week in all areas. Ethan has particularly impressed us with his caring nature which we have seen recently, during PE he ensured that everyone was involved and adapted how he was playing handball to make sure this happened. It is so lovely to see. Keep it up Ethan.
