

Principal's Award		The Principal's Award this week has to go to Year 6. They have approached their SATs tests with determination, calmness and a desire to do their best. They have done their families, their school, their teachers and most of all themselves proud this week. Well done Year 6, we couldn't be prouder of you!
Distinction		Ella Mason (4R) Jamie McKenna (4R)
Attendance		98% Year 6
Dojo Team Winner		Orange
Pupil of the Week
Nursery	Heyv S	Heyv has been showing more confidence in her approach to tasks. She is now speaking in full sentences to choose what she would like to do and is working really hard. We love Heyv's creativity and her attention to detail- Keep up the good work Heyv!

RM	Willow K	Willow's confidence has been shining this week. She has been sharing her ideas on the carpet and showing great determination in phonics. Keep up the great work Willow – it is lovely to hear your thoughtful ideas!
RC	Jenson D	Jenson is continuing to work hard and to make great progress. He approaches all tasks set with a beaming smile and is showing great pride in his new learning. We are really proud to have you in Reception Jenson – keep up the great work!
1F	Grace T	Grace is an incredibly hardworking member of 1F. Grace is a reminder to everyone of what a Moorside pupil looks like. Grace is eager to try her best and never gives up. Keep sparkling Grace!
1B	Jacob B	Jacob comes into school every day with a smile on his face. He consistently puts in maximum effort in all his work and is eager to keep learning. Keep working hard Jacob!
2T	Eva D	Eva has been working really hard this week and has really impressed us with her independence. She is showing amazing determination in maths and has made incredible progress. Keep up the super work!
2PR	Evie T	Evie has been really switched on with her learning this week and has particularly impressed us with her arithmetic skills in Maths lessons. Well done Evie!

3S	Jessica B	Jessica has been working hard exploring new vocabulary in her reading, history and English work and is always keen to use this in her writing. We're really impressed!
3F	Alice D	Alice has been working really hard on writing her recount of the events in Pompeii. I can see the super sentences we have practised in class popping up in her independent writing! Well done Alice!
Reader of the week: Isla R – She always tries really hard to read regularly at home and read independently in class. You are making great progress, well done.
4R	Deacon D	Deacon's attitude towards his learning is brilliant. Deacon's humour, kindness and politeness towards his peers and teachers is endearing and should be admired by all. Keep up the hard work, Deacon.
4A	Evie J	Evie's focus and concentration during lessons has been fantastic in recent weeks. This has had positive effects on her work, particularly her writing where I have been impressed by her excellent ideas and choice of adventurous language. Well done, Evie – keep on pushing yourself!
Reader of the week: Daisy G Daisy is moving up Reading Plus levels fantastically. Her eagerness to read new, interesting and challenging books is to be treasured. Keep doing what you're doing, Daisy!

5T	Mia-L S	For always being focused on her learning, asking relevant questions and using her class resources and 5Ts when finding something tricky. Well done Mia-Leigh!
5C	Martin McD	For settling into Year 5 so wonderfully. Martin has completed his first week at Moorside and has taken everything in his stride. He always arrives at school with a smile on his face and he will no doubt continue to do well.
Reader of the week: Poppy P has made good progress with her reading this year. She reads consistently at home and remembers to bring in her reading record with comments about what she has read. Well done!
6C	N/A	All children are having the principal award instead.
6I/P	N/A	All children are having the principal award instead.
Reader of the week: Kirsty E I for reading so frequently and bringing in her reading record.		