Pupil of the Week
Nursery	Bobby B	Bobby has had a fantastic week in Nursery. He consistently tries hard with everything and is always on task. Bobby has impressed me with his super name writing this week! Keep it up Bobby.
RM	Jorson Z	Jorson has amazed me with his confidence this week. He has shared his ideas with his talk partner and the class with great enthusiasm. It fills with me joy to see his proud smile when he completes his learning activities in class. Great effort Jorson – keep it up!

RC	Polly K	Since starting in Reception, Polly is showing herself to be an extremely kind and caring young lady. She is always willing to go above and beyond to help others and shows real empathy towards other children in the class. Keep being you Polly – we are really proud to have you in our class!
1F	Wraith B	Wraith has had an amazing week. He has been trying hard in all his learning and is starting to show great pride in the work he produces. He has been smiling more in school and we are so glad to see it! Keep sparkling Wraith!
1S	Ivy S	Ivy is a wonderful pupil in 1S who always has a smile on her face. Ivy always tries her best and since starting at Moorside, I have noticed her confidence grow. Keep shining, Ivy!
2T	Scarlett Kay F	Scarlett has been shining this week. She has been working extremely hard to produce beautiful pieces of writing and makes sure puts her best into everything that she does. She is a fantastic role model in 2T, keep up the amazing work Scarlett!
2R	Jamie J	Jamie is a brilliant member of 2R. She listens well and always tries her best. Her confidence is always growing in each lesson. Well done, Jamie!
3S	Lainey H	Lainey is a fantastic example to others in our class – she always tries her best, she is a good friend, and always kind and helpful. Lainey missed a few days of learning this week and came back ready to learn and ready to tackle all her challenges. I'm really proud of you Lainey.

3F	Isabelle Bird-L	Isabelle has been trying her absolute best recently to learn some tricky new methods in our maths lessons. She never gives up and I am proud of the hard work she puts in. Well done Isabelle!
Reader of the week: Jayden F 3F – Jayden has been working extra hard at home to practise his reading and learn new words. He is excited about reading and sharing stories. You are becoming a super reader, well done!
4R	Dolcie-Dae	Dolcie-Dae puts all her effort into her learning to help her succeed. Dolcie is not afraid to ask for help when she needs it and understands that it will help her grow her brain. Dolcie is always polite and very well-mannered which others should look up too. Well done, Dolcie!
4A	Oliver W	Oliver has had an excellent week. He has made fantastic choices both inside and outside of the classroom and has impressed all of the Year 4 staff with the kindness that he has shown to staff and to the other children. Well done, Oliver! We are all proud of you!
Reader of the week:
5P	Ella M	Ella is always doing the right thing in class as well as around the school. Ella listens, contributes to class conversations and has a clear love of learning. She is a role model for the children within the school. Keep being your wonderful self Ella, you are making your teachers proud!

5C	Maksim G	Maksim has demonstrated in recent weeks a mature and sensible attitude. He has been making good choices, working hard and has been incredibly helpful around school. This has been so pleasing to see! Keep it up Maksim.
Reader of the week: Ellie R, Ellie brings her reading record in regularly to show her home reading and is keen to explore the books within 5P. Ellie also often tells me about a book she has enjoyed reading.
6C	Ovie J	Ovie has been showing a more mature approach to his learning and behaviours in recent weeks. He is contributing to lessons, conducting himself with pride and showing a real aspiration to be the best version of himself.
