

Principal's Award		Georgia C in Year 4 is a brilliant example of everything a Moorside pupil should be. When I see her around her school, she is polite, thoughtful and kind. She quietly gets on with the business of learning and models all the values of Moorside of pride, respect, collaboration, understanding and aspiration which ensures that Georgia is the best possible version of herself at all times. We are very proud of you Georgia!

Pupil of the Week
Nursery	Freddie B	Freddie has had a fantastic week. He comes into nursery with a smile on his face and this is great to see! Freddie is a great friend and a fantastic role model. Keep it up Freddie!

RM	Felix O'H	Felix listens carefully every day on the carpet and then sets himself a challenge to complete. It's great to see his ambition and the effort he places into his writing. Keep up the great work Felix!
RC	Xinghao X	Xinghao has settled really well into Reception. He is in the early stages of learning English but is still enjoying school and developing some lovely new friendships. I am most impressed however, with the way in which he joins in wholeheartedly with our class songs! He's a pleasure to listen to! Well done Xinghao – keep it up!
1F	Brandon R	Brandon has worked his socks off this week! He has written an amazing letter to the Queen and has immersed himself in our Geography topic. Brandon has been very kind and helpful this week. Keep up the great work Brandon!
1B	Amy D	Amy is a quiet member of our class who just gets on with her work at all times! She is kind to others, helpful around the classroom, and is always trying her best. Keep it up Amy!
2T	Phaedra Y	Phaedra has blown us away this week with her hard work and independence. She has made so much progress with her maths and handwriting in particular, as a result of her great attitude. She has settled into Year 2 brilliantly and we are so proud of her. Well done Phaedra, keep up the fantastic work!
2PR	Kieran B	Kieran has really impressed us with his knowledge when learning about Africa. He has a real thirst to find out more. He has had some fantastic ideas in our English this week and we are really looking forward to reading his non-chronological report about Meerkats next week.

3S	Jackson B	Jackson has had a great week – he has shown great determination to overcome his worries and has learnt that even if something seems tricky or scary, he can try it anyway and have fun! Great work Jackson!
3F	Logan B	Fantastic effort in all areas of his learning. Always listening, completing tasks and ready for a challenge. A shining example to others. Keep it up Logan!
Reader of the week:  Ella M (3F)  Ella is reading regularly at home and at school, she is always eager to change her book and go on another adventure! Well done Ella!
4R	Millie W	Millie is an exceptionally behaved pupil of Moorside. She demonstrates amazing effort in all areas of her learning. Millie is helpful, kind and takes responsibility for her actions. She puts other people's feelings first and I am very proud of her! Well done, Millie. Keep it up, you're doing great!
4A	John-Richard M	John is one of the quiet superstars of year 4. He is respectful to everyone in school and conducts himself excellently inside and outside of the classroom; he collaborates well with the other children; and he places pride in all his work, which is always excellent. Well done, John! You are star!
Reader of the week:  Aarav PI (4R) Aarav is a phenomenal reader at home. His reading record is nearly full due to the wonderful amount of reading he has done (and it's not even half term yet!) Super reading Aarav, keep it up to keep growing your brain.

5T	Faith N	Faith really deserves pupil of the week as she is always positive and working hard. She is always aspiring to do her best and grow her brain. Well done, Faith!
5C	Oliver E	Oliver has had a fantastic attitude towards learning this week and has set a great example for other pupils in his class. Keep it up, Oliver!
Reader of the week: Well done Poppy P, who has been making a fantastic effort to read each night and has shown great focus and determination on Reading Plus.
6C	Cody P	Cody has really been trying to apply himself to his learning and to focus in class. He has even written an amazing fan-fiction about Spiderman in his own time, which he brought in to share.
6I/B	Darci S	For excellent in-class contributions and for really pushing herself during English. Darci is a kind, well-mannered member of the class who consistently makes the right choices and completed homework on time. Well done – keep it up!
Reader of the week: Michael E  Michael has been reading lots at home lately and sharing his books with his family. He has also been really engaging with his reading plus and is showing a great attitude to his learning.
