

Principal's Award		Ayden D in Year 6. I see Ayden around school and he always has the most beautiful manners and is respectful to everyone including his peers. In class, he gets on with his work, helps others and is an all round excellent role model. Well done Ayden. You are an excellent example to all the children.
Distinction
Attendance		96.2% overall 1S - 99% 3S - 99%
Dojo Team Winner		Blue
Pupil of the Week
Nursery
RM	Piper D	Piper has settled well into school and is already helping others. She listens carefully and always shares her ideas with a smile. It is lovely to see the kindness and care she treats others with. Well done Piper!

RC	Skylar R	Skylar has made a great start to life in Reception. She has a very grown up attitude and always makes the right choices, meaning that she sets an excellent example to other children. We are all really proud of how well she has settled – well done Skylar!
1F	Hadiya O’K	Hadiya has settled in well into Year 1. She has shown us great perseverance and I am looking forward to seeing her grow throughout the year. Keep up the fantastic work Hadiya!
1S	Cole H	Cole is always eager to learn and shows aspiration when doing so. His confidence has grown in Year 1 and I am eager to watch him thrive for the rest of the school year. Keep it up Cole!
2T	Lacey-Mae R	Lacey has made the most incredible start to Year 2. She is always ready to learn and has a fantastic attitude. Keep shining Lacey, we are so proud of you!
2R	Amy	Amy is a kind and considerate member of 2R. She always chooses to do the right thing and is a shining example for all of Year 2!
3S	Kieran B	Kieran is a keen and enthusiastic learner and he has been impressing us all with his knowledge of skeletons this week. What a good role model for others – keep it up Kieran!

3F	Erin M	An excellent example of a Moorside pupil. Her maturity and hard work shine through every single day. Keep being an excellent role model Erin!
Reader of the week: 3F – Xander Dunbar Xander is reading regularly at home, bringing his books in to change nearly every day and showing excellent reading practice in class. He is a year 3 book worm!
4R	Azra D	Azra is simply brilliant! She follows all instructions, tries her best in all subjects and is always ready to learn. Azra isn't afraid of a challenge and tackles them head on. Azra is a role model to other children in the class (and the school!). I am very proud of you, Azra, keep it up!
4A	Harry S	Harry has had an excellent start to the term. The quality of his work has been fantastic and his learning behaviours are an example to others. Keep up the hard work, Harry! Well done!
Reader of the week: Dolcie-Dae L (4R) Dolcie has been wowing me with her at home reading as she reads multiple times a week. She understands that it improves her as a learner and is determined to improve her understanding of books and reading. Well done, Dolcie.
5P	Ellie R	Ellie has settled into Year 5 incredibly well. She has a positive attitude towards learning and has begun to confidently get involved with whole class discussions. Ellie is also a wonderful friend to all of the children in Year 5 as well as an amazing role model for the younger children within the school. I know Ellie will continue to impress me as the year progresses. Great work!

5C	Jemimah S	Jemimah has settled into Year 5 extremely well. She is a very quiet, polite and well-liked member of the class who has really come out of her shell this week. It has been wonderful to see Jemimah's hand up in class more and to see her participating in class discussions. Keep up the hard work Jemimah!
Reader of the week: Kyras B (5P) Kyras has really impressed me this week with her reading at home. Kyras has prioritised her reading and has been giving me daily updates on her book. Keep this up Kyras you're doing an excellent job!
6C	Poppy P	Poppy is showing wonderful collaboration and a true understanding of how to work as a team. She is thoughtful, considerate and helpful going above and beyond to support those around her. An absolute star.
6P	Jesse L	Jesse has made an amazing start to year 6 and settled into the routine extremely well. He is trying so hard with all his work and showing great resilience when he finds it tricky. He is helpful and takes great pride in carrying out his 'milk job' every day. He is a star and I am so proud of him! Keep it up Jesse!
Reader of the week: Alice D for already improving her use of Reading Plus and taking responsibility for her own learning.		