

Principal's Award		Richie D in Year 5. Richie has been working hard this year to make good choices and choosing to do the right thing for himself and others both in and out of the classroom. This is resulting in him being a good role model for those around him, having a positive impact on his work in class and just being a good friend to everyone. Keep up the good work Richie!

Pupil of the Week
Nursery	Carter B	Carter tries incredibly hard with every task. He plays nicely with his friends and listens well on the carpet. Keep up the fantastic work Carter!

RM	Karter F	Karter consistently tries his best and has really developed his resilience this week. It is great to see him complete the classroom challenges with pride and his big smile! Keep up the fantastic work Karter!
RC	Mila P	Mila is a delightful young lady to have in the class. She is kind, caring and helpful to others and has developed some very positive friendships with her peers. Added to this she is always keen to take on board new learning and completes class challenges to the best of her abilities. Keep up the fantastic work, Mila!
1F	Archie G	Archie has been working incredibly hard this week! He has been showing real pride in his writing and is making sure his handwriting looks neat and on the line. Well done and keep sparkling Archie!
1S	Harley L	Harley is a kind and caring member of 1S. His smile always lights up our classroom! Harley has been trying extra hard this week with his writing, he has been using describing words in his sentences. Keep shining, Harley!
2T	Jacob B	Jacob has been working really hard this week. He has shown a fantastic attitude to his work and has been shining. Keep up the great work Jacob!
2R	Harry V	Harry has a real thirst for knowledge and challenges himself in every lesson. He has particularly impressed me this week with his work in fractions and attempting to up-level his writing. Well done, Harry!

3S	Alexia B	Alexia has been working hard this week to catch up missed work and her fantastic effort is really beginning to pay off. It's lovely to see the great work you are capable of when you put your mind to it – keep it up!
3F	Renesmai W	Renesmai has been working hard recently to complete tasks on her own. She is remembering to check her own work, recognise when she has made a mistake and take steps to fix it. She is becoming a very independent learner. Well done Renesmai!
Reader of the week: Poppy P Poppy has been working hard on her reading plus and is enjoying the competition to stay on the leader board. Well done Poppy!
4R	Casey-Leigh K	Casey-Leigh is a great collaborator. She works well in a team but also independently. She is a great friend to all and can be trusted to make the right choice.
4A	Oscar W	Oscar has had a fantastic half term. His independence and maturity has hugely developed and he has consistently produced extremely high-quality work. Keep on pushing yourself, Oscar!
Reader of the week: Scotting C Since joining Moorside, Scotting has impressed me with his dedication to reading at home. He brings his reading record in daily to accept a new challenging, adventurous read.

5P	Deacon D	Deacon has been trying incredibly hard to make the right choices when in class recently. Deacon has really impressed me this week with his focus during our art lessons where he has painted his imitation of a piece of artwork by Paul Nash. Deacon has also been incredibly helpful when assisting me to complete small jobs throughout the week. Keep this up Deacon!
5C	Annabelle D	Annabelle has been working really hard on her cohesion in writing this week and produced some excellent work. she has also been working really hard in maths and has shown an increased confidence when doing long multiplication this week. Well done Annabelle.
Reader of the week: Dlven A for trying really hard in her reading and for regularly changing her reading book! Keep it up!
6C	Amelia Vickers-C	Amelia has shown real determination to improve her mindset and achieve all she is capable of this half term. She is showing better focus, determination and a responsibility for her own learning. Well done Amelia.
6P	Logan McG	I have seen a really positive change in Logan over the last couple of weeks both in and outside the classroom. He is coming straight into class, settling quickly and is focused on his learning. He is starting to show resilience and not give up when he finds something a little tricky. He is also making good choices outside of the classroom and starting to take responsibility for himself and the choices he makes. Logan should be as proud of himself as I am and keep this up after half term.

Reader of the Week:

Skylar E

Skylar has been bringing her reading diary in several times a week and has also been focused and working well in guided reading. The effort she is putting in has shown through in her reading test score this week. Well done Skylar!
