Pupil of the Week
Nursery	Henri M	Henri is a super star. He has settled into Nursery incredibly well and follows all the rules. He listens carefully and inputs his ideas in discussions on the carpet. Well done Henri!

RM	Jaxon S	Jaxon has put a great deal of effort into his learning recently and it's wonderful to see his beaming smile of pride as he completes classroom challenges. His knowledge of writing is flourishing too – keep up the great work Jaxon!
RC	Reggie D	Reggie has been working hard to develop his phonic skills and is showing great pride in the presentation in his book. It's great to see Reggie accessing more of the classroom challenges with independence. Keep up the great work Reggie!
1F	Jenson D	Jenson has had an amazing week; he is resilient with his learning and is always striving to go above and beyond with his writing. Jenson shows great pride in himself and his learning, keep sparkling Jenson!
1S	Alanna Mae S	Alanna has settled in at Moorside and shows good listening to all of her teachers. Keep it up, Alanna!
2T	James B	James has had another fantastic week. He has been working extremely hard in every lesson and has been absolutely sparkling. Keep up the brilliant attitude James, we are very proud of you!
2R	Darcy C	Darcy has been really trying her hardest to make the right choices in the past few weeks. This week she has been fantastic. She has listened well and worked hard in all her lessons. Keep it up, Darcy!

3S	Archie D	Archie worked really hard to make good choices on our school trip this week and he blew all the adults' socks off with his impressive knowledge and good manners. Well done Archie!
3F	Leon W	Leon really impressed us and the museum staff with his knowledge of the Stone Age when we went on our trip this week. He listened well and shared his answers at the right time. Super job representing the school!
Reader of the week:
4R	Jackson B	Jackson has impressed me the last week as he has been putting significant effort into ensuring his handwriting is neat. Keep up the hard work, Jackson.
4A	Alexa-Rose Sr	Alexa has shone in the last few weeks due to the effort and pride that she has put into her work. She works incredibly hard and is a thoughtful girl who is a great friend to the other children in class. Keep up the great work, Alexa!
Reader of the week: Alfie McC This term, Alfie has been actively remembering to bring in his reading record to showcase his reading outside of school and is eager to change his book for a new adventure. Well done, Alfie.

5P	Millie W	Millie has been working incredibly hard over the last two weeks with her writing. She has created some wonderful sentences about Savitri and Satyavan from our class story Seasons of Splendor and has been able to share her ideas with those around her in order to support their learning. Keep this up Millie!
5C	John-Richard M	John is a dream to have in Year 5. He is hardworking, listens well and always tries his best. John leads by example and can be relied upon to complete work to the best of his ability. Every class needs a John! Keep shining bright.
Reader of the week: Jessica E has been reading lots at home and has ensured her reading record is signed every week. Great work!
6C	Arianna M	Arianna is really taking responsibility for her own learning. She is applying herself well to all areas and strives to do her best. Keep this up Arianna and I know you will achieve your full potential!
6P	Isabella V	Isabella has begun to see the direct correlation between the amount of effort she puts in and the results of her work! With this in mind, she is applying herself well to all areas of the curriculum and, as a result, is reaping the rewards. Keep it up Isabella!
Reader of the Week: Oscar reads every week without fail or prompting! His recent test scores as well as his ability to answer questions and rationalise are a direct result of this. Well done Oscar.
