Pupil of the Week
Nursery	Luca Z	Luca is always asking inquisitive questions to extend his play ideas. He is always listening carefully and answers questions with confidence on the carpet. Keep it up Luca!

RM	Frankie K	Frankie always listens carefully to our new learning and shares wise observations he has made. He always completes the class challenges and is busy with his learning. Well done Frankie – keep up the great effort.
RC	Eva H	Eva has been shining this week with her effort and positive attitude. We have really seen an improvement in her phonics and she has been particularly helpful around the classroom. We have all noticed your fantastic effort – well done!
1F	Hazel L	Hazel has been working incredibly hard this week. She is trying her best with her phonics and her improvement this year has been amazing. Hazel is particularly interested in our frogs and has been asking great questions about them. Keep up the fantastic work Hazel!
1B	Gracie M	Gracie is always a superstar in class. She is an excellent example of what a Moorside pupil should be. She has demonstrated amazing progress across all subjects, and we are all so proud of you Gracie! Keep sparkling!
2T	Bailey H	Bailey has a fantastic attitude to learning and doesn't give up. He shows brilliant determination to grow his brain and even tries his best with things he doesn't enjoy. You are a superstar Bailey, keep up the great work!
2PR	Rose O-M	Rose has been working incredibly hard in class. She listens well and always presents her work to a high standard. She has a very positive mindset and is not afraid to mistakes as she knows this is how we grow our brains! Keep up the good work Rose.

3S	Casey-L K	Casey-Leigh has really impressed us this week in Year 3. She works hard at everything she does and her confidence has really grown. Keep it up Casey-Leigh!
3F	Ollie B-W	Ollie has been going out of his way to be a helpful member of the class this week. He has also been working hard to show us his knowledge in our assessments this week. Well done Ollie!
Reader of the week: Joshua C Joshua is a fantastic example to others in our class of what a reader is. He reads his book every day and has made fantastic progress on reading plus. Well done Joshua!
4R	Maks	Maks is always determined to improve his handwriting and English learning, which is fantastic to see. Maks' quick multiplication recall is impressive and he is an all-round model student. Keep it up Maks!
4A	Harry H	Harry has impressed all of the staff in Year 4 with his excellent concentration and focus during lessons. Harry is now producing excellent pieces of work, particularly in Maths, and is making super choices both inside and outside of the classroom. Well done, Harry! Keep it up!
Reader of the week: John-R M John has made excellent progress on Reading Plus this year and his comprehension skills have gone from strength to strength. Great work, John!

5T	Riley Js	Riley Jones is a wonderful role model for year 5. He is focused in class and works well independently and collaboratively. He is understanding and accepting of others. He is a very hard worker and also is a kind friend inside and outside the classroom. Thank you for showing us what an outstanding Moorside pupil is, Riley.
5C	Arianna M	For having a positive attitude towards her learning and for working consistently hard. Arianna has really knuckled down in recent weeks and had made good progress in all areas of her learning.
Reader of the week:  Reece B for having a positive attitude towards reading at home and for ensuring that his reading record is always signed. Reece is also making super progress on Reading Plus and is often in the top 4 on our class leader board.
6C	Lola J	Lola has really applied herself to her learning this year. She is making great choices in class with her behaviours for learning and these are feeding into her attainment in class. Keep it up Lola.

Reader of the week: Nicole H for keeping up with her reading plus and bringing in her reading record consistently.
