

Principal's Award		Millie-Rae in Year 5. It doesn't matter where I see Millie or who or who she is with, she is always making the right choices and being a role model for everyone else. She displays the Moorside values both in and out of the classroom and is a pupil we are very proud of. Well done Millie!

Pupil of the Week
Nursery	Paisley	Paisley is a fantastic member of Nursery. She is trying really hard to use her "stretchy sentences" and this is great to see. Keep up the good work Paisley, we're really proud of you!
RM	Connor	Connor arrives to school every day with enthusiasm and a smile. He always tries his best and listens carefully to the ideas of others, before adding his own thoughts. He is a fantastic role model who is always helping others. Well done Connor!

RC	Archie G	Archie is really trying hard to apply himself at the moment. He is working hard on his reading at home and this is having a fantastic impact on his learning in school. He is making great progress in phonics and I am very proud indeed. Keep up the great work Archie!
1F	Amelia K	Amelia comes into school with a beautiful smile on her face. She is an eager learner and is always joining in with class discussions. She is particularly enjoying our current topic – Australia. Keep shining Amelia!
1B	Dylan H	Dylan is always listening in class, following instructions, and doing the right thing. I have noticed big improvements in Dylans writing this week, as he has been remembering to use his finger spaces! Keep working hard Dylan.
2T	Freya H	Freya has had another amazing week. She works extremely hard and shows amazing determination and independence in all that she does. We are so proud of you and your amazing attitude to learning Freya, keep up the brilliant work!
2PR	Millie McG	It is Millie's last day at Moorside and we shall miss her very much. She is a lovely pupil who always comes into school with a smile on her face. She always tries so hard with her learning. This week she has particularly impressed us with her division skills. We wish you all the best in your new school
3S	London	London has had a fantastic week. He has been listening carefully and always has thoughtful contributions to make to class discussions. I can tell London is really enjoying learning about the Stone Age, and it's showing in his work. Keep it up London!

3F	Ella M	Ella has been working really hard on her maths this week. She has a quiet determination and tries her best to complete tasks independently. It can sometimes be tricky but she never gives up, super attitude Ella!
Reader of the week:
4R	Mason K	Mason's independence has increased recently. His courage to tackle challenges directly and with no worries is admirable. Mason is putting his best efforts into his learning, and he should be proud of himself, keep it up Mason!
4A	Summer H	Summer has had an excellent start to 2022. Her effort in all lessons is fantastic and her work, particularly her Writing, has improved so much over the course of Year 4. Summer has also made excellent choices at break times and is becoming a kind and thoughtful friend to many of the other children. Well done, Summer!
Reader of the week: Lily-May P – 4R Lily –May has been flying up the leaderboard on Reading Plus recently and has been really impressing me with her emphasis on her reading voice.
5T	Harry T	Harry T works very well in class, whether independently or in partners/groups. He is always willing to offer a helping hand to other pupil and to adults in school as well. His positive attitude towards tasks and challenges make him an asset to 5T. Well done, Harry!

5C	Poppy P	Poppy is 'Little Miss Organisation' in 5C! She is always so wonderfully helpful and is always listening carefully to instructions to ensure that her work is completed to the best possible standard that she is capable of. Keep up the hard work and positive attitude Poppy!
Reader of the week: Jimmy L for applying himself and for showing a fantastic understanding when investigating word meaning during guided reading.
6C	Conrad B	Conrad has really been finding his own character and personality and letting it shine in the past few weeks. His knowledge of and curiosity about geography have also really enriched the learning of the rest of the class.
6I/P	Antonio	For settling into Year 6 so well! We have been so impressed with his effort and attitude towards learning. He has made a fantastic addition to the class – well done and keep it up!
Reader of the week: Ruby C for keeping up with her Reading Plus as well as continuing to read and have her reading record signed.
