Pupil of the Week
Nursery	Nancy H	Nancy has had a fantastic week this week. We've had no tears and she's listening really carefully on the carpet. Nancy is trying hard to be a good friend and her personality is really shining! Keep up the good work Nancy.
RM	Thomas Stringer-R	Thomas always impresses me with his listening and attention to detail in his learning. He is always confident to share his thoughtful observations with the class and is a positive role model to others. Well done Thomas!

RC	Luca Z	Luca always listens carefully on the carpet and sets a great example to the children around him. He also joins in enthusiastically with singing activities. He remains a quieter member of the class but it is great to see his sense of humour really coming to the fore. Keep shining Luca!
1F	Aarzu K	Aarzu is an excellent example of what a Moorside student looks like. She is extremely well mannered, polite and never fails to have a lovely smile on her face! Aarzu shows great aspiration in her work and I am looking forward to seeing her grow throughout the year. Keep sparkling Aarzu!
1S	Alice C	Alice has settled in to our school and Year 1 quickly. She is confident to ask for help, is always listening and is always willing to give her work a go! Alice is a lovely new addition to our classroom and has made lots of new friendships. Keep shining Alice!
2T	Andre L	Andre has made an incredible start to Year 2. He is always doing the right thing and always tries his best with everything that he does. Andre has wowed us with his writing this week- keep shining Andre
2R	Henry S	Henry is a fantastic member of 2R! He has already shown great work ethic and is also an amazing friend to everyone in the class. Well done Henry!
3S	Fraya Wynn-P	Fraya has settled into Year 3 fantastically and is quietly getting on with the business of learning. She works hard and is always looking for ways to improve. Keep it up Fraya!

3F	James C	James has made the move to key stage 2 with a super attitude and determination. He works hard every day and never misses a moment of learning time. Keep up the fantastic work James!
Reader of the week: Billie Billie has been enjoying reading at home and has brought her reading record into school every day. She is a fantastic role model to others. Well done Billie!
4R	Rocco McB	Rocco has been shining this week. His attitude towards his learning has improved massively and he is constantly joining in class discussion and helping his peers. He is a friend to all and a good model student. Well done, Rocco!
4A	Adam J	Adam's effort and work has been excellent since we came back to school in September. He listens well during discussions and is becoming more confident in sharing his ideas with the class. Keep up the fantastic work, Adam!
Reader of the week: Otilia T. Otilia reads regularly at home and is always one of the first members of the class to hand in her reading record. This is having a very positive effect on the quality of her written work. Well done!
5P	Jack H	Since the start of the term Jack has come to school with a positive attitude and always tries incredibly hard with everything he does. Jack has really impressed me this week with his participation in a story reenactment during our visit from the Hrothgar the Viking.

5C	John Richard M	John could receive this award every week! He is hardworking, polite and an excellent role model to his peers. John can always be relied upon to work well both independently and on his own and he always gives 110%. Keep up the hard work John.
Reader of the week: Dlven A has been chosen this week for her determination to read at home every night. Dlven remembers to change her reading book daily and has shown a keen desire to do well in her reading this year. Keep it up Dlven.
6C	Charlie S	Charlie is showing pride and aspiration in all that he does both personally and academically. He is a kind and considerate member of our class and an excellent role model to others. Keep it up Charlie.
6P	Lilly P	Lilly has a fantastic attitude towards her learning. She knows she is ultimately responsible for it and uses her 5 T's consistently. She is a role model as a Moorside pupil: always demonstrating our school values and being respectful of herself and others.
Reader of the week: Arianna M for reading frequently, sharing her stories and poems with us and completing her reading record consistently.
