Pupil of the Week
Nursery	Presley P-S	This week Presley has been trying really hard to trace over his name. He is learning to follow the rules and is becoming better at this. Presley has been fully engaged in activities. Well done Presley-keep it up! 😊
RM	Tobias Wr	Toby has engaged with our work on shape and has asked some interesting questions. He always listens carefully and wants the best for his learning. Keep up the fantastic effort Toby – well done!

RC	Wraith B	Wraith has worked incredibly hard on his letter formation and pencil grip. We are also proud of how resilient you have been in learning to write your own name! Fantastic work Wraith – keep it up!
1F	Mason S	Mason is an incredibly hard-working member of 1F. He puts in maximum effort in all his work, and it does not go unnoticed. Mason is a great role model for his peers, and I am so impressed with him. Keep shining Mason!
1B	Jamie-Jo J	Jamie-Jo has been working really hard this week when writing a story. She has been concentrating on her spellings, ensuring she remembers to 'Fred talk' all of her words accurately. Your hard work has not gone unnoticed, keep it up!
2T	Bobby S	Bobby has blown me away with his writing this week in all subjects. He has shown great determination and focus, keep up the great work B
2PR	Isla S	Isla is working really hard, especially with her writing and maths. She is reading through her writing thoroughly and making improvements where needed. She is listening well to instructions in maths and is becoming a more confident mathematician! Keep up the good work Isla.
3S	Ellina S	Ellina is a fantastic example to others in our class. She always tries her best and is always ready to challenge herself. Ellina is a good friend to others and is always willing to help. Thank you Ellina and keep up your hard work!

3F	Toni-Ann S	Toni-Ann has been working really hard to improve her choices during break and lunch times. She is showing us how she can be a good friend and role model during these times. We are very pleased to see this change, keep it up Toni-Ann!
Reader of the week: Joshua C for reading almost 50,000 words on Reading Plus!
4R	Kyras B	Kyras's independence has heightened recently as she becomes stronger in her learning. She has impressed me by actively asking for trickier maths learning to improve her arithmetic! Kyras's enthusiasm for drama, music and the wider curriculum is lovely to see. Keep working hard, Kyras.
4A	Maksim G	Maks has had an excellent couple of weeks. His learning behaviours have improved in class and he is making excellent choices outside of the classroom too. Keep up this hard work, Maks. Well done!
Reader of the week: Jamie Mck Jamie's confidence when reading aloud in class is flourishing beautifully. Her ability to use her reading to help her make predictions about a text and answer retrieval questions in Guided Reading is highly evident.
5T	Ayden D	Ayden has shown a great improvement in his behaviour in class this last week. He has been more focused on his class work, has been kind to others in and out of class and setting a good example for others. Keep it up, Ayden!

5C	Daisy G	For taking pride in her maths work this week and for challenging herself. Daisy has ensured that her hand is up if she has had any questions, she has asked for help and she has been able to attempt some very tricky questions as a result! Well done, Daisy. Keep it up.
Reader of the week: Harry W for being in the top 5 readers on Reading Plus in Year 5! Keep up the great work Harry!
6C	Lagan B M	Lagan has found this week challenging but he has really tried his best to apply a positive mindset and keep up his great learning behaviours. Well done Lagan.
6I/P	Amelia B	We have seen a massive improvement in her confidence which has enabled her to answer more questions in class and contribute more frequently. We have also been so impressed with her practice SATs week scores and she is always focussed and gives 100%. Well done Amelia – we are so proud.
Reader of the week: Leah D For her brilliant attitude towards reading! We have been so impressed with her progress and language choices based on the high-quality texts she is reading.
