Pupil of the Week
Nursery	Ezra Slater-R	Ezra has been trying hard to listen carefully. We've seen an improvement in his social skills and he has been playing lovely this week. Ezra is willing to join in with everything and has been carefully tracing over his name. Keep up the good work Ezra!

RM	Bella-Rae K	Bella is a fantastic role model and is always helping her friends with their learning. She always completes her activities with a smile and great enthusiasm! She is being ambitious with her phonics to write more challenging words independently. Keep up the great work Bella!
RC	Jorge C	Jorge is working hard in phonics and now knows the majority of the sounds we have covered so far. He practises his reading regularly at home and all his hard work is reflected in the great progress he is making. Keep up the fantastic work Jorge – you can achieve great things!
1F	Tommy S	Tommy has been working incredibly hard this week. He has shown real flair in his writing and is pushing himself to complete the best possible work. Tommy is always aiming high! Well done, Tommy. Keep shining!
1S	Elliott R	Elliott has had a wonderful week in 1S! Elliott has been showing pride in the classroom by taking his time and focusing on his writing. Elliott always has a smile on his face and shows a love for learning. Keep shining, Elliott!
2T	Chase W	Chase has had another brilliant week. He has an amazing attitude to his learning and is a role model to other children in the class. Keep up the fantastic work Chase!
2R	Safiyyah K	Safiyyah is a ray of sunshine in our class – she always has a huge smile on her face and is polite to everyone. She has impressed me this week with her determination at completing her tests. Well done, Safiyyah.

3S	Halimat O	Halimat has such a positive attitude to learning and school life in general. She is always challenging herself and helping others to do better too. She worked hard to show what she could do in our recent assessments. Super work Halimat!

Reader of the week: Phaedra Y – 3F Phaedra regularly reads at home and changes her book nearly every day. She has enjoyed sharing the new class reads at home and she is beginning to confidently discuss characters and plots in our class texts. Keep it up Phaedra!
4R	Joseph E	Since starting Moorside in September, Joseph’s confidence has grown massively. Joseph is actively joining in class discussion and becoming a much more confident and positive learner. Keep up the hard work, Joseph. You’re doing great.
4A	Logan M	Logan has had an excellent week. His focus has been much improved and his attitude to learning has been fantastic. Logan has produced some excellent pieces of work recently and continues to make insightful contributions during our class discussions. Well done and keep it up!
Reader of the week:

5P	Aarav P	Aarav is a shining example of what a Moorside pupil should be. He is kind to everybody in the class, he works hard in everything he does and he is always doing the right thing. Aarav has really impressed me recently with the effort he is putting into all of his school work. Keep it up Aarav!
5C	Mia Corbishley-G	Mia regularly shines in Year 5. She is a hardworking and enthusiastic learner who always tries her best. Mia goes above and beyond and her anti-bullying work this work has really impressed the Year 5 time. Keep it up Mia!
Reader of the week: Rana S for scoring consistently well on Reading Plus and for always trying her best during her Guided Reading sessions.
6C	Lily W	Lily is the epitome of our Moorside Values. She is an understanding, collaborative person who takes pride in all she does and aspires to be the best version of herself. She is a delightful person and a role model for all.
6P	Sophie R	Sophie has had a great week both in and outside the classroom! She has been focused in class and pushing herself with all her learning. She has shown great resilience with this and been collaborating well with her partner. At break and lunch times she has been building positive friendships.
Reader of the week: Oliver E he reads each week and brings his reading record. His commitment to his reading really shines through in his writing too.
