

Principal's Award		This week I have chosen Freddie By. We went on a school trip to the cinema last Friday and Freddie's behaviour was impeccable but alongside this he showed beautiful manners on the tram by offering his seat to someone else. What a gentleman! You display all the Moorside values Freddie and we are very proud of you!
Distinction		Lola J - Orange Leah B – Green Thomas H - Red
Attendance		99.4% Year 5
Dojo Team Winner		Yellow
Pupil of the Week
Nursery	Harry S	Harry has really matured this year in Nursery. I have seen a huge improvement in his behaviour and learning. He is eager to join in with everything we do in Nursery and I am so proud of him! Keep it up Harry 😊
RM	Elijah W	Elijah always sets a fantastic example for others and is a great role model. His curiosity and desire to know more is helping him to stretch his learning. Thank you for shining Elijah – keep it up!

RC	Elise Keogh-C	Elise has a really grown-up attitude to school life. She has wonderful manners and is kind and caring to everyone around her. She also sings her socks off every time songs are shared! Well done Elise- keep it up!
1F	Emma T	Emma has shone this week. She has been putting in maximum effort into her work. Emma has shown us her best version of herself this week and we hope her hard work continues. Keep shining Emma!
1B	Safiyyah K	Safiyyah has been using lots of adventurous vocabulary in her writing this week, and has produced an excellent piece of work that she has completed with her partner. Keep up the amazing work Safiyyah!
2T	Isabelle B	Isabelle has shown lots of focus and determination in her work this week. She is a kind and caring member of the class and is always full of positivity. Keep up the great work Isabell
2PR	Poppy P	It has been a pleasure marking Poppy's work this week as she is putting her all into producing work of excellent quality – presentation and content. Keep up this fantastic work Poppy.
3S	Rocco McB	Rocco has worked really hard this week and put maximum effort into his assessments. He has really shown us what he can do when he puts his mind to it, so keep it up Rocco!

3F	Otilia T	Otilia has been working hard this term to improve her writing, she is getting very good at self-editing, looking for better word choices and thinking about the reader. Keep up the great work Otilia!
Reader of the week: Isabelle B – she reads regularly and changes her book often. It is clear to see the influence of the books she reads in her writing. It has also helped her with her assessments this week. A great example of how reading helps you with all your learning. A superstar reader, well done!
4R	Harley C	Not only are Harley’s manners impeccable but he has been working incredibly hard and being an example student in the classroom this week. Harley always completes his tasks in lessons and more recently has been taking risks in his work to challenge himself and change his mindset. He has also done very well in his tests this week. Remember, you learn from your mistakes! Keep it up Harley, super proud of you!
4A	Lyla-Rose B	Lyla has been working exceptionally hard recently, producing work of a consistently high standard. Her attitude to learning is fantastic and her conduct, inside and outside of the classroom, is an example to others. Keep up the fantastic work, Lyla! You are a star!
Reader of the week: Nela B (4A) Nela’s confidence as a reader has gone from strength to strength this year. She is always one of the first children to hand in her reading record and her independent reading is really benefitting her work in school. Well done, Nela!
5T	Sophie H	Sophie has been working incredibly hard in Maths recently. She has been focused, independent as much as possible and asking for help when needed. On top of this, she’s been doing extra work at home in topics she finds a little tricky. I’m so proud of the effort she’s putting in to grow her brain!

5C	Charlie S	For applying himself every day in all areas of his learning. Charlie is a thoughtful and conscientious member of Year 5 who models excellent behaviour and a desire to do well. Well done Charlie we are so proud of your continued hard work. Keep it up.
Reader of the week: Arianna M (5C) for trying incredibly hard with her reading both in and outside of school. Arianna is reading lots in her own time and her efforts have not gone unnoticed. Keep it up!
6C	Olivia J	Olivia has really aspired to take pride in her work and show off what she can do. In our assessments this week, and in the writing last week, this has really shone through and all her hard work and determination are really paying off. Keep it up Olivia!
6I/P	Amy W	Amy has worked really hard and shown great resilience this week, especially while we have been doing assessments. Amy shows great pride in all she does and is always striving to do her best. A great attitude Amy-keep it up!
Reader of the week: Kaitlin F reads, and remembers to bring in her reading record to show this, on a regular basis. She has been using Reading Plus alongside this to help her understanding of texts too. Well done Kaitlin.		