Pupil of the Week
Nursery	Arya C	Arya has had a super week! She has been answering all the questions on the carpet and has been trying really hard with her patterns in Maths and we're really proud of her!
RM	Cody P	Cody has developed his confidence and is sharing his ideas with the whole class. He listens carefully on the carpet and gets busy completing the challenges of the week. Well done Cody!

RC	Emily McC	Emily has been listening very carefully on the carpet and sharing some thoughtful ideas. It's great to see her challenge herself in the classroom. Well done Emily!
1F	Louie C	Louie has been working incredibly hard this week. He has designed and constructed a fantastic toy car independently. Keep up the great work Louie!
1B	Bella H	Bella has been showing a real enthusiasm towards her learning this week, and has been putting in maximum effort. Your hard work does not go unnoticed Bella, Keep shining bright!
2T	Daisie-Rae G	Daisie-Rae has had an amazing week, she has put her best into her writing and has come in with a great attitude, ready to learn every day. Well done Daisie you have shone this week!
2PR	Ava J	Ava could be pupil of the week every week! She is a fantastic role model, works hard in every lesson and has impeccable manners. She has super ideas and makes excellent contributions in class. Keep it up.
3S	Dolcie-Dae	Dolcie always works really hard on her learning and never gives up, even when she finds something tricky. She is a fantastic friend and a good example to others in the class, keep it up Dolcie!

3F	Alice D	Alice has been trying really hard with all her learning lately. She does sometimes find it a bit tricky to work independently but she never gives up and always finds a way to get things done. She has even battled through when she wasn't feeling great. You are doing a great job Alice.
Reader of the week: Maya – Maya has been working extra hard on her reading recently and it's really showing in her comprehension skills and confidence. Maya never stops learning and growing her brain. Keep up the hard work Maya!
4R	Charlie L	Charlie is a delight to teach. Charlie is a thoughtful, courteous and humorous member of 4R, who gets along with everyone. He works super hard when working independently and he has been impressing me with his engagement in lessons each day that goes by (he has also been wowing us with his fabulous singing voice!) Keep up the hard work, Charlie.
4A	Harriet H	Harriet has been working exceptionally hard recently to improve specific parts of her learning, particularly her arithmetic skills and her presentation. Her concentration and focus in lessons is excellent, which has allowed her to produce some fantastic pieces of writing in recent weeks. Well done, Harriet!
Reader of the week: Deacon Deacon, you are an exceptional reader and I am always impressed by the adventurous books that you choose to read. Keep it up, superstar!
5T	Eva-Naima	Eva has been working incredibly hard in class. She always has a positive attitude and happy to take on any suggestions to improve her work. Her positivity and sense of humour make her a fantastic of our class.

5C	Ini J	Ini has been working incredibly hard in all areas of his learning. His presentation is outstanding all of the time and this week he has blown the class away with his excellent vocabulary in his story writing. Keep up the hard work Ini.
Reader of the week: Mia-Leigh Skelly – Mia-Leigh has brought in her reading record consistently every week since the start of the year. She ensures she always has a book to read and it's paying off – she has really impressed me with her Reading Assessment! Well done, Mia-Leigh!
6C	Cody P	Cody is really impressing the staff in year 6 with his attitude to his learning. He is focusing on his tasks, doing his best to work independently and his writing is going from strength to strength. Well done Cody.
6I/P	Alexis H	Alexis has been working incredibly hard recently. She is focused in class and eager to improve her work, particularly her writing. She is asking lots of questions to help with this and really thinking about her learning. Her change in mindset has been lovely to see. She has also been completing extra homework too. Well done Alexis and keep up the good work!
Reader of the week: Alfie has really begun to access his Reading Plus more frequently and independently. He is already reaping the benefits of this positive mindset and attitude.
