

Principal's Award		Otilia T and Ella Morris in Year 4. Otilia has been checking the Acts of Kindness poster for which is outside the Den and has been doing an act of kindness ever day which included asking me if I was having a good day. These small and consistent acts of kindness to each other are what make a place happy and kind place where people feel safe and cared for. Thank you for helping to make our school a better place for everyone.

Pupil of the Week
Nursery	Theo O'H	Theo has blown us away with his super name writing. He is becoming much better at understanding how others might feel and has tried really hard with our task this week. Keep up the good work Theo!

RM	Lucy W	Lucy is a caring and enthusiastic member of the class who is fantastic role model to others. She has challenged herself this week to write independently during our Drawing Club. Keep up the fantastic effort Lucy!
RC	Regan Q	Regan's confidence has grown a great deal this week and he has been eager to participate in the classroom challenges. He always joins in with our carpet learning with enthusiasm and a smile. Well done for shining this week Regan!
1F	Ewan C	Ewan has had a lovely week. He has written a lovely diary entry in the POV of an Aboriginal Australian. He shows great pride in his learning and is a pleasure to have in class. Keep sparkling Ewan!
1S	Frankie K	Frankie has been working hard in class and at home. He has been bringing back his reading book daily and completing his homework too. In class, he is shining bright with confidence and pride, especially in Maths. Keep up the hard work, Frankie!
2T	Summer Y	Always doing the right thing, follows instructions well and although she sometimes finds things difficult, she always tries her best.
2R	Gracie M	Gracie is a shining star in our class. She consistently works hard, challenges herself and spreads positivity into everything she does. A true Moorside superstar!

3S	Billie F	Billie has been working particularly hard this week on her writing and has made sure that she is focused and listening to instructions. This has really showed in the fantastic description she has written of a Stone Age character. Well done Billie!
3F	Kayla P	Kayla has been working hard recently, particularly with her maths, and she is becoming more more independent with her learning. Keep up the good work Kayla!
Reader of the week: Iris N 3F – Iris has continued to blow us away with her dedication to Reading Plus and she is proving hard to beat on the leaderboard! In addition to this she reads every day at home and brings her reading record in daily.
4R	Aysa Taylor-H	Aysa has been impressing me with her Maths understanding the last few weeks. She knows that mistakes make us better learners and we learn better from them! Keep up the hard work Aysa.
4A	Ella M	Ella has worked incredibly hard in Maths, this year. Her confidence and understanding is going from strength to strength and she has pushed herself to learn her times tables. Keep up the hard work, Ella! You are a star!
Reader of the week: Azra D Azra has been firing through books! She is dedicated to read one book a night when she is at home – very impressive!

5P	Masie L	Masie has been working incredibly hard this week to write her diary entry in English. Masie has impressed me with her focus and determination and the quality of work she has produced. She is an excellent role model and should be incredibly proud of herself. Keep up the amazing work Masie!
5C	Victor S	Victor has been working his socks off in Year 5! His head has been down, he has been focused and it has been wonderful to see his confidence grow. Viktor has been challenging himself in maths, reading and writing and his positive attitude and hard work is clear to see in his books. Keep up the hard work Viktor.
Reader of the week: Charlie B r Charlie reads at home weekly and always has his record signed. I have noticed that Charlie has been trying really hard with his reading as there is a clear improvement with his fluency and comprehension skills. Keep it up!
6C	Millie-Rae D	Millie is an excellent example of a Moorside pupil within the classroom, around school and whenever she is representing us in competitions. She is polite, respectful, courteous and diligent. Well done Millie.
6P	Valentin G	Valentin has had a great week this week. He is focusing more and taking responsibility for his own attitude and learning. Keep it up!
Reader of the Week: Riley J. Riley is one of our best Reading Plus users. He is using the app consistently and pushing his own learning.
