Pupil of the Week
Nursery	Caleb	Caleb is confident and chatty at Nursery! He is an excellent member of our class and is a great friend. Caleb now listens well on the carpet and this is great to see! Keep it up Caleb
RM	Mika	Mika is a fantastic role model every week and this week is no exception. She has been a great partner in phonics. She has helped others with their reading patiently and has shared her spellings at home with us all. Well done Mika!

RC	Logan W.	Logan is trying really hard in all areas of his learning. He is coming out of his shell and trying to offer his ideas and opinions in class discussions. He is doing particularly well in his phonics and this is having a great impact on his reading and writing. We have all noticed and we are all really proud of how well he is doing! Keep up the fantastic work!
1F	Thomas R	Thomas has been working very hard this week, he is trying his best to make sure he completes all his work in time. I have been impressed with his determination and brilliant work in English. Keep up the great work Thomas!
1B	Alexia	Alexia has been working really hard this week. She is trying to make sure all of her work has been completed by the end of the lesson, and to a high standard. We are very impressed, well done.
2T	Ellis	Ellis has had an amazing week, he has come to school every day ready to work hard and do the right thing. Ellis has blown me away with his Maths this week and his determination to work out tricky questions. Well done Ellis, keep up the fantastic work!
2R	Alfie M	Alfie has made brilliant progress so far this year. He listens well to adults and works hard in every lesson. I have been particularly impressed with his addition and subtraction skills in maths!
3R	Charlie L	Charlie has impressed me and Mrs Stelfox this week with his hard work. He always follows instructions and always puts 100% effort into everything he does. Keep it up Charlie!

3F	Caleb	Caleb has been working very hard recently, staying focused on his tasks and making good choices in and out of the classroom. He has demonstrated his memory skills by recalling previous learning and he has been contributing well to class discussions. We are very proud of you Caleb!
4B	Faith	Faith is trying super hard in everything at the moment – particularly in Maths. Her efforts have not gone unnoticed and she is making progress. Well done Faith!
Reader of the week: Ini for exceptional progress in Reading plus
4A	Holly	Holly is one of the hardest working members of our class. She puts the maximum effort into all that she does and consistently produces work of the highest standard. She also conducts herself fantastically; setting an example to the other children through her behaviour inside and outside of the classroom. Well done, Holly! You are a star!
Reader of the week:
5T	Ruby P	Ruby P has remained a consistently well-behaved student all year, who does her best and is kind to everyone. In particular this week, I have noticed that Ruby exudes confidence in who she is a person and with her interests both in and out of school. It's fantastic to see her continually grow, mature and express herself as an individual.
Reader of the week: 5T: Josh Pearson for completing all his tasks the last 2 weeks – so far getting above 80% of 7 reading tasks! Even on the trickier texts, he does his best. Keep it up, Josh!
5W	Jacob	Jacob should be celebrated every week in 5W for being a supportive, friendly and kind member of the class. He always listens carefully and is a great mathematician too. Thank you for being such a fantastic classmate!

Reader of the week: Jude Smith for completing his weekly tasks and to a great standard. Well done Jude!
6C	Sofia Tkachuk	For fantastic effort in everything. Shows real resilience and great sense of humour and a wonderful addition to our class.
Reader of the week: Dylan Turner for continued effort at home, in Guided Reading sessions and on Reading Plus.
6I/B	Makayla W	For trying extremely hard in all her learning this week, even when she finds it hard. Keep it up Makayla!
