Pupil of the Week

Nursery	Evan D	Evan has come back to school with a “can do” attitude! He has made our new friends feel happy and settled. He is more confident to answer questions and is now using a big voice with longer sentences to engage in discussions. Keep up the fantastic work Evan!
RM	Cassius Slater-R	Cassius has settled well into Reception and I am so proud of how quickly he has developed his superpower of listening. He pays full attention to our class story and is confident to share his ideas with his talk partner. Well done Cassius!
RC	Hallie S	Hallie is quickly getting used to school expectations and is developing great relationships with adults and children alike. She usually comes into school with a bright smile and always listens carefully to whole class discussion and teaching. You are making a fantastic start to school life, Hallie – keep it up!
1F	Hallie O’G	Hallie is a fantastic member of 1F. She is a great friend to others and is always eager to help someone if they need it. Hallie tries her best with her work and ensures that it is presented nicely. Well done and keep sparkling Hallie!
1S	Cody P	Cody has been coming to school this week with a smile on his face, and for that, I am so proud of him. In Year 1, Cody is becoming more confident and is always ready to learn. Keep it up Cody!
2T	Stephen B	Stephen is a fantastic example of Moorside role model. He is always doing the right thing, he always tries his best with whatever he is doing and he is always kind and thoughtful. Keep shining Stephen, we are so proud of you!

2R	Viyaan P	Viyaan has had a super start to Year 2. His learning behaviour has been fantastic, and he has already completed two pieces of outstanding writing on Sunny the meerkat!
3S	Jayden H	Jayden has been working hard this week to improve his writing. His effort has been fantastic and I can see he is really starting to see his hard work pay off. Keep it up Jayden!
3F	Lois C	Lois has settled in wonderfully to year 3. Fantastic effort and super learning behaviours demonstrated in all lessons. She is kind and polite and a wonderful member of the class.
Reader of the week: Halimat O 3F Halimat enjoys reading and brings in her reading book regularly to change. She enjoys discussing the books we read in class and looking for differences and similarities to other stories we have read.
4R	Jessica B	Jessica has produced three fantastic paragraphs this week in English. Her use of various grammatical features have impressed me. I am always so excited to pick up her book and read what she has written next! Keep it up Jessica!
4A	Logan B	Logan's effort and application has been outstanding since the beginning of the year. Logan ensures that all of his work is of the highest possible quality and the pride that he puts into everything that he does is an example to the other children in Year 4. Well done, Logan!

Reader of the week: Ire J

Ire has been a super reader this week, he is currently at the top of the leader board in 4R on Reading Plus! Well done Ire!

5P	Beatrice S	Beatrice has really impressed me this week with her focus and confidence within Math's. Beatrice has been raising her hand to answer questions as well as working hard to independently answer our mathematical problems. Keep up this great work!
5C	Annabelle D	Annabelle has really impressed the Year 5 staff this week with her increased confidence in maths and her ability to ask for help when she is unsure. Annabelle has been offering answers in class and pushing herself to complete more work during lessons. It has been wonderful to see a smile on her face during our maths sessions! Keep it up Annabelle.
Reader of the week: Amelia H Amelia has demonstrated a real love of reading. Amelia reads regularly at home, gives me detailed book reviews and is currently top of the Year 5 Reading Plus leaderboard. On reading plus she has read over 18,000 words with a comprehension percentage of 91.6%. Amazing work and a true role model!
6C	Holly W	Holly has a fantastic growth mindset. She works hard, pushes herself and just gets on with the business of learning! She is kind, considerate and collaborates well with others too. An all-round Superstar!
6P	Harry T	Harry has made a great start in year 6. He aspires to be the best version of himself and puts 100% into all he does. He is understanding and supportive of his peers too. A real role model for others.

Reader of the week: Riley J he brings his reading diary every day and is accessing his reading plus regularly going above and beyond the homework expectations.
