Pupil of the Week
Nursery	Elsie-Mae B	Elsie is showing more confidence in a range of situations. She listens carefully on the carpet and is trying hard to use her stretchy sentences. Elsie is always beautifully behaved- Keep it up Elsie!
RM	Oumou H	Hani brings so much enthusiasm to her learning and always asks interesting questions to stretch her ideas. Her creations in the workshop are always creative and thoughtful. Keep up the great effort Hani!

RC	Ella Grace E	Ella puts the maximum effort into everything she does. She is always busy in a range of our classroom areas and enjoys sharing her ideas with the staff and children around her. Even better, she always does so with a smile! Well done Ella – we're really proud of you!
1F	Chase W	Chase comes to school every day with a big smile on his face. He is a keen learner and has been working really hard this week. He always chooses to do the right thing and is a role model to other students. Keep up the fantastic work Chase, keep being you!
1B	Ava W	Ava quietly gets on with the business of learning every day. She has been working really hard this week on ensuring all of her sentences make sense. Keep shining bright Ava, your hard work has not gone unnoticed.
2T	Layla B	Layla has had a brilliant week, she walks in ready to learn every day and has an amazing attitude towards her work. She has blown us away with her understanding of fractions this week and is a role model for determination in Year 2. Keep up the amazing work Layla!
2PR	Jemima G	Jemima has worked incredibly hard this week. She has listened to instructions well and has also demonstrated fantastic historical thinking when discussing sources!
3S	Ire J	Ire has worked his socks off this week. He is working hard to use his phonics sounds in his writing and has read over 32,000 words on his reading plus. Keep up the hard work Ire!

3F	Maddison P	Maddison is a hard worker who doesn't let anything distract her from the business of learning. She is kind and polite and a pleasure to have in the classroom. She was recently off school for a little while but she has worked hard to catch up since her return. Keep it up Maddison!
Reader of the week: Aysa Taylor-H Aysa has been working hard to use reading plus at home and is making good progress with her reading. Keep it up Aysa!
4R	Jack H	Jack has been a superstar this week and has tackled all of his challenging work head on. He has a plethora of knowledge when it comes to the Egyptians and we all love to hear his magnificent facts. Jack is a fantastic reader and if I could give him Reader of The Week too, I would! Keep up the hard work, Jack. Really proud of you.
4A	Caleb A-R	Caleb's focus has been excellent in class recently. He is enthusiastic about his learning and is always willing to share his ideas with the rest of the class. The quality of his work, particularly in Maths, continues to improve each week. Caleb is also a fantastic friend to the other children who appreciate his great sense of fun. Well done, Caleb!
Reader of the week: Amelia H Amelia has been impressing me with the adventurous stories that she has been choosing and her broad interest of genres. Amelia has built a plethora of fantastic vocabulary from reading as she continues to grow her brain – keep it up!
5T	Poppy P	Poppy is a great role model for those in year 5. She prides herself in her learning and understands the importance of the work we do in school to develop the skills we'll need in life. Poppy goes above and beyond to do extra learning at home which will help her with her work in school. This has really shown through her fantastic start her non-chronological report on WWI. Keep up the fantastic work!

5C	Liliana W	For becoming more confident with offering and answering answers in class and for asking for help when it is needed. As a result of offering more answers in class and asking for help when she feels unsure, Liliana has been accessing and completing more of her maths work independently. Well done Liliana, keep asking for help if you are unsure.
Reader of the week: Holly W for showing determination to read more outside of school. Holly has been really trying to get a note home for her reading and has really impressed us this week. Keep it up Holly.
6C	Lexi B	There were some fantastic stories written in 6C this week but Lexi really took her time, included a huge range of grammar and punctuation and wrote a cohesive piece very well. Great work Lexi-well done!
6I/P	Kaib	For demonstrating the school values and going above and beyond to produce his best. Kaib has started taking more pride in his learning and is always contributing to class discussions. His vocabulary has also been exemplary. Well done!
Selein A Another week of bringing in her reading record every day, sharing what she has read and showing a real enjoyment in and pleasure from reading.
