Principal's Award	Jayden F in Year 1. Jayden has been blowing my socks off this week with his phonics! He is been telling me all the sounds he knows and has been on a treasure hunt around school for some key words and reading those fluently to me. Keep up the great work Jayden!	Jessica P in Year 4. I am so impressed with Jessica and her work on Reading Plus. She accesses it every day and reads several texts, taking great care to be accurate. This has meant that her progress since the start of the year has been brilliant. Well done Jessica!
Dojo Team Winner	Team Orange
Pupil of the Week
	In school	At home
Nursery	Maddison - Maddison always tried her hardest and is a great role model. Maddison's attitude to learning has improved greatly since the start of the year and I'm so proud of her.	Cody - Cody is trying really hard with all the tasks. His counting has improved and he has made great progress. Keep it up Cody!
RM	Rakim – Rakim is always eager to try his best and help others. It has been wonderful to see him use his phonics to help others with their writing. He has been reading a great range of books too which is wonderful to see! Well done Rakim!	Mika-Jai – Mika's work is always completed to a high standard and you can tell she has taken great pride in her work. I am especially proud of Mika for learning and performing a new song this week! She has even created her own yoga story book. Well done Mika on your fantastic achievements.

RC	Dylan – Dylan has a really enthusiastic attitude to his learning. He is always keen to share his ideas with those around him and completes all tasks with a smile on his face.	Ike – Ike is completing all his home learning tasks to the best of his abilities and his handwriting is really improving. He has a great attitude, which is wonderful to see - keep it up Ike!
1F	Bailey – Bailey has been working very hard this week on his reading. I'm incredibly impressed and proud of the work he has produced! Keep up the fantastic work Bailey!	Ming-Tak – Ming-Tak has been working incredibly hard over the last few weeks. It is his first term at Moorside and although he has not been in school yet, I am very proud of all the remote learning he has completed. Well done Ming-Tak and keep up the fantastic work!
1B	Billie – Billie always brightens up our days with her beaming smile and constant enthusiasm. She has been working incredibly hard on her cursive handwriting this week, and it has not gone unnoticed. Keep shining bright Billie!	Jessica – Jessica has been working incredibly hard at home this week. I have enjoyed seeing all of her videos in maths, as well as reading her diary entry in topic. Keep up the hard work at home Jessica!
2T	Reeva - Reeva has a fantastic attitude to learning as well as being an incredibly kind, caring and thoughtful member of Year 2. She always makes sure that everyone has someone to play with and is always looking out for other people. Thank you for your endless kindness Reeva!	Otilia- Otilia has blown me away with her home learning this week. She has shown great pride in her work and every task she sends in has been completed to the best of her ability. Otilia has particularly impressed me with her fantastic reading this week. Keep up the amazing work Otilia, I am so proud of you!
2R	Grayson-Grayson has been doing excellent listening in class he always tries to do the best he can and gives 100%. He is very helpful in the class and always makes sure his table is tidy.	Ellina – Always working hard at home and completing her work to such a high standard. Well done Ellina.

3R	Jack – Jack has been working hard to be a good friend to others and always makes good choices at playtime. He makes sure he is fair and includes everyone, and is a good example to others. Keep it up Jack!	Mason – Mason has been working really hard at home and this week has wowed us with his attitude to learning and his perseverance. He has written an excellent story about some pirates who wouldn't stop fighting and has come back every day ready to write a little bit more. He keeps going even when he finds it tricky!
3F	Taylor – Taylor has come back to school this week and has tried his best to get back into learning. He has listened well, joined in discussions and completed tasks with enthusiasm. We are glad to have you back Taylor!	Nela – Nela has been working hard every week to complete all of her home learning. She completes everything to a very high standard and takes pride in her presentation. It's not always easy to complete work neatly online but she takes her time to make it just right. Well done Nela!
4B	Poppy O - I could pick Poppy every week - Poppy continues to work hard and take pride in everything she does. She is a kind and well-mannered member of the class that always has time for other people. she is an all-round superstar	Jessica – Jessica is trying very hard with her home learning especially with Reading Plus over the past few weeks. Her efforts are paying off and she is making lots of progress! she has gained two awards in the last week and is already well on her way to gaining her next one. Well done Jessica
4A	Arianna has made excellent progress this term, particularly in Maths where her confidence has hugely developed this year. Arianna is a good friend to the other children and has an infectious enthusiasm for her school work. Keep up the hard work, Arianna!	Nya has been working extremely hard on all aspects of her home learning in recent works. Her writing is consistently excellent and her problem solving skills are going from strength to strength. Nya is also making excellent progress on Reading Plus, which will help her in so many other aspects of her learning. Well done, Nya.
5T	Lily McGuire – Lily has been absolutely fantastic this week. She's been doing her best to complete her work as independently as possible and has worked very hard. She is very engaged in our lessons and asking fantastic questions. It's been great to see her with a smile on her face and enjoying the work we're doing. I've been very impressed with her poetry as well!	Ruby Cunningham – I am so impressed with Ruby this week! Not only has she been completing every piece of work really well, but she's also taking this time to practice her times tables a lot and improve. Her writing has been fantastic and I can tell she puts a lot of effort into her work every day. I couldn't be more proud of Ruby. Well done!

5W	Leah Bowker – Leah was isolating recently but has returned to school and her effort, presentation and pride she takes in her learning has not changed at all. She listens carefully in class, offers great ideas and is a great friend too. Keep up the excellent work Leah!	Again, really hard to choose! I had to go for Bobby Duke this week. His research and work into the pollution of the River Ganges was excellent and his summary of our story on Thursday was as entertaining as the book! He always responds to checks and challenges and has kept the same pride in his work as does in school. Keep it up Bobby!
6C	Kai Taylor for working hard and really engaging with all his learning. He’s been putting in the extra effort especially with his writing and topic work. Keep it up Kai!	Dylan T – For completing all his home learning including accessing Reading Plus. He goes above and beyond in his learning even sending in additional photos and videos of what he has been doing. He shows such enthusiasm and is helping to keep our spirits up too. Keep it up!
6I/B	Olivia- For being a conscientious and determined learner. She is always pushing herself to achieve the very best and isn’t afraid to put in the hard work. Olivia often takes learning home to practice and even spent part of her breaktime reading ‘Goodnight Mister Tom’ so she could share her ideas with the class. Well done – we are so proud!	Amber, Emmy, Sapphire and Gracie - For completing all their home learning including accessing Reading Plus. They go above and beyond in their learning even sending in additional photos and videos of what they have been doing. Keep it up!
