Pupil of the Week
	In school	At home
Nursery	Ralphie- Ralphie has been giving some great answers on the carpet, he is trying hard to make the right choices and is listening carefully to instructions- Keep it up Ralphie!	N/A
RM	Amelia - Amelia has impressed all the adults in class this week with her fantastic answers. She has used new words from our class text in her answers and solved the part-whole models by explaining each step she takes. Well done Amelia!	Scarlett – Scarlett always completes her work to a high standard and I can see she puts a lot of thought into her learning at home. It is great to see her using her new learning to produce some impressive work! Well done Scarlett!

RC	Jamie-Jo – Jamie Jo has continued to work hard, particularly in phonics. Her handwriting is showing real improvement and she is trying hard to think about the overall presentation of her work. Keep up the hard work Jamie.	Amy has worked consistently hard on her home learning, completing all tasks set to the best of her abilities. I am really looking forward to seeing this positive attitude when she returns to school next week. Keep it up Amy!
1F	Renesmai – Renesmai has been working incredibly hard this week, she has produced some fantastic writing! Keep up the super work!	Halimat - Halimat has been consistently completing all her work whilst remote learning. She tries very hard and produces some beautiful work. I am really impressed with Halimat, keep it up!
1B	Charlie – Charlie has had a really good few weeks! He is getting on with his writing and completing all of his work within the lesson. He is regulating his emotions much better and all of the staff in year 1 are really proud of Charlie!	Harley – Harley has been sending in lots of pictures and videos of all of the things he has been doing at home. Even though sometimes it can be a little bit tricky, Harley demonstrates great resilience and we love seeing all of things he has been getting up to!
2T	Alice- Alice has worked extremely hard this week, especially on her reading and writing. She has a fantastic attitude to learning	Otilia- Otilia has consistently worked hard on her home learning. She completes every task to the best of her ability and blows me away every day with her beautiful work. Otilia is always ready to have a go at any tasks we send and her fantastic attitude shines through. Huge well done Otilia!
2R	Jacob has tried his best and given 100% in everything he has done this week. He has listened to feedback carefully and used this to make further progress.	London has completed work to high standard and always listens to and responds to feedback when given. Well done London.
3R	Charlie L – Charlie came back to school this week and he has settled back in brilliantly. He has a fantastic attitude to learning – keep it up Charlie!	Logan has worked hard to keep up with his home learning this week. He doesn't always find it easy but always asks for help when he needs it and responds to feedback. Well done Logan!

3F	Viktor – Viktor has been working hard, he is always striving to improve his writing and his understanding of the work we do in maths. This week he has worked hard to master the Bus Stop method for division.	Summer – summer has worked hard to keep up with her home learning, she has tried her best and responded to the feedback we gave to help her along the way. She has a positive attitude and never gives up, well done Summer!
4B	All children from my class in the key worker group – all of the children have worked exceptionally hard throughout this period. all have made progress and have been a pleasure to teach.	Ollie – Ollie has been consistent throughout home learning with completing work. He will consider any feedback and resubmit and always completes work to a very good standard. Well done Ollie
4A	Sonny. Sonny has had an excellent week, which has been noticed by other adults in Year 4. His focus and effort has been excellent and he has been ready to produce high quality work from the moment that he has entered the classroom each morning. Well done, Sonny!	Riley. During the last few weeks, Riley has really pushed himself at home and has produced excellent pieces of work in Maths and particularly in Writing where the quantity and quality of his writing has come on in leaps and bounds. Keep up the hard work, Riley! Well done!
5T	Curtis – Curtis has contributed very well to class discussions this week and is always on task. He works very hard to ensure his work is at its best quality and never shies away from a task. He has been a responsible and energetic member of our class this week. Well done and thanks for always being positive!	Freya – Freya has worked consistently throughout lockdown ensuring to be participating in every lesson. She has been well organised, is very thoughtful about her work, and asks questions when needed. She has blown me away with her enthusiasm for her work. This is well deserved! Great job, Freya.
5W	I have chosen Amelia this week for working brilliantly in maths over the last term and showing a greater confidence with lots of different concepts and methods. She has also contributed some fantastic ideas in our discussions about our new text in English. Keep up the great work!	It has been extremely hard to choose what is hopefully our last home learner of the week! I have chosen Darci for all her hard work through both lockdowns. She is a conscientious learner and always takes pride in her work, whatever the subject. Even if she is not feeling well, she aims to catch up as best she can and that shows a fantastic attitude to her learning. Well done, Darci!

6C	Halle-Mae. Halle is resilient, hard-working, always striving to improve and gives 100% to all her work. She is a kind, considerate and funny class member and her contributions help the rest of the class to learn. Keep doing you Halle!	Logan B, especially over the past few weeks Logan has really increased the amount of work he has been sending in, but more importantly the quality of the work he has been sending in. Great work, great effort and great aspirations to succeed. Well done, Logan.
6I/B	Summer – Summer has had a great few weeks in school. She has been focused in all her work and has made great progress in just 2 weeks.	Jessica- a consistent attitude towards home learning. Jessica goes above and beyond with all her learning. Giving everything 100%.
