Pupil of the Week
Nursery	Eesa I	Eesa has been coming to school with a smile on his face. He is trying hard with all of his learning and is listening carefully. We are really proud of you Eesa!

RM	Jorja B	Jorja is becoming more engaged with her learning and enjoys taking part in classroom tasks and activities. Along with this, she did a fantastic amount of reading over the Christmas holidays. We really want you to keep up this great work Jorja– a huge well done to you!
RC	Frankie B	In recent weeks Frankie is really trying hard to join in with whole class activities. He particularly enjoys phonics and knows all of the letter sounds. He is also trying really hard to blend them to read words! We are all really proud of you Frankie – keep up the fantastic work!
1F	Luna B	Luna has had a fantastic week. She has been resilient with her learning and has ensured to try her best across all subjects. Luna has written a fantastic letter to Bob the astronaut and you could see how proud she was of herself. Keep sparkling, Luna!
1S	Tobias W	Toby has returned to school after the holidays with a 'can do' attitude and for this, I am very proud of him! Toby is listening well and taking pride in himself and his learning. Keep it up, Toby!
2T	Eli B	Eli has made a fantastic start to the new term. He always puts his best into everything that he does and is not afraid of a challenge. He has a fantastic, determined attitude to his learning and is kind and caring towards those around him. Keep shining Eli!
2R	Logan W	Logan has had a brilliant first week back. He has shown enthusiasm within each lesson and shown great pride in the work he has produced!

3S	Esther S	Esther is a fantastic example to others in 3S. She always makes the right choices, works her socks off and is a good friend to others. Keep it up Esther!
3F	Maddison H	Maddison is new to our class and she has settled in really well this week. She has worked hard and made lots of new friends. She is a wonderful addition to our school. Welcome Maddison!
Reader of the week:  Rose O-M  Rose has been working hard on her Reading Plus this week and has made her way onto the class leader board – keep up the hard work Rose!
4R	Alfie McC	Since before Christmas, Alfie has had a positive attitude towards his learning. Alfie has been showcasing such passion and enthusiasm for all subjects and understands that good choices should be made. Keep working hard Alfie, I'm very proud of you!
4A	Harley L	Harley's focus has been fantastic since he returned from the holidays. He has applied himself excellently during lessons and has made good choices at breaktimes. Keep up the great start, Harley!
Reader of the week:  Misha N  Since joining Moorside, Misha's English and reading is gradually improving. He can read stories to myself (and he reads a lot at home!) for pleasure. Well done, Misha!

5P	Scarlett Y	Scarlett has returned to school with an incredibly positive attitude towards learning. This week she has really gotten herself stuck into our lessons on fractions and even gone out of her way to help her peers. Keep this up Scarlett I am so impressed!
5C	Kian T	Kian has returned to school ready and raring to learn. Over the half term, Kian took it upon himself to research and build his own World War One trench to show his friends. Keep up the hard work Kian! The Year 5 team are loving your enthusiasm.
Reader of the week:
6C	Keris C	Keris is a resilient, independent year 6 learner. She knows what she needs to do and helps herself, using a wide range of strategies.
6P	Sylvia M	Sylvia quietly gets on with her work and focuses on making good choices and showing good learning choices.
Reader of the Week: Lily W has become something of a class librarian! She is sharing books and helping others to choose theirs by sharing her knowledge.
