Pupil of the Week

Nursery	Bella-Rae K	We are so proud of Bella. She is trying really hard with her name and has come on leaps and bounds. Bella is a fantastic role model and is always ready to learn. She is kind and enthusiastic. Well done Bella and keep it up!
RM	Elijah W	Elijah has been a fantastic role model at Moorside and will be missed when he goes to his new school. He is always helpful, kind to others and interested in his learning. We wish you all the best!
RC	Nate M	Nate has been ambitious with his writing this week. He has taken care to show his best handwriting whilst also spelling some challenging words. Great work Nate – keep it up!
1F	Lacey-Mae R	Lacey is a fabulous member of 1F. She is always smiling and strives to be her best self. Lacey has immersed herself in our science topic all about plants. Keep shining Lacey!
1B	Darcy C	Darcy has been working incredibly hard this week with her learning. She has shown that she can make really good choices, and we are very proud of her! Keep sparkling Darcy.
2T	Shayla R	Shayla has had an incredible week, she always has a smile on her face and has been working extremely hard in every lesson. She is a ray of sunshine in 2T, keep up the brilliant work Shayla!

2PR	Jessica B	Jessica is a role model in class for her fantastic behaviour! She always listens well on the carpet and tries her best with all her work. She comes in every day with a lovely smile on her face.
3S	Wayde R	Wayde is a fantastic example of a Moorside pupil and really shone on our school trip. He thought carefully about what he had learnt and was able to ask some good questions. We were all really impressed!
3F	Isabelle B	Isabelle has been working hard on her Celtic narrative in English this week. She has been striving to improve her handwriting and use descriptive language. Super work Isabelle!
4R	Zack H	Zack works independently and is able to formulate answers to tricky problems. He is a go-to fact file and is always full of fascinating knowledge about anything and everything! You're doing great, keep it up, Zack!
4A	Taylor B	Taylor quietly impresses all of the year four staff through his hard work and the effort that he puts into everything that he does. Mr Coen also speaks highly of Taylor's computing skills, a subject that Taylor has a real passion for. Well done, Taylor!

Reader of the week:

5T	Logan McG	Logan has had a very good week this week. He has been focused in class and has added some very thoughtful points to our discussions. Well done Logan, keep it up!
5C	Nya McK	Nya McKay for having a positive attitude towards her maths work this week. Nya has actively asked for help in her own time this week to ensure that she makes the progress that she is capable of. This has been wonderful to see and shows a real determination to do well! Keep it up Nya.
6C	Imaan R	Imaan has shown real dedication and commitment this week and is fasting during Ramadan. This hasn't prevented her from working hard and being her usual lovely self even though it must be tricky! She is my pupil of the week for being such an inspiration.
6I/P	Sophie W	Sophie is a kind and conscientious member of Year 6 who has really knuckled down since Christmas. We have been particularly impressed with her level of focus and determination to succeed. Sophie is a pleasure to have in class and we are really proud of the progress she is making. Well done – keep it up!

Readers of the week:

Year 3:

Reader of the week: Carlymarie C

– Carlymarie has been working hard on her reading plus recently and has made good progress. Keep it up!

Year 4:

Pippa C

Pippa is an outstanding reader. Pippa's continuous reading has improved her retrieval in Guided Reading and her recent Reading assessment test was amazing! Pippa can explain a story and make predictions very well. Keep growing your brain.

Year 5:

Reader of the week: Alice D has been fantastic at reading outside of school and having her reading record signed this half term - well done!

Year 6:

Lacey-Lou L – for being an avid reader and pushing herself to read more challenging texts. Lacey has really impressed us with her recent reading test scores and we hope she continues to spend time with her nose inside a book.
